Renewed concerns over HS2 damage

MORE than two million tons of top agricultural earth in Staffordshire will be dug up to build the first part of HS2 - sparking more claims that high-speed rail will cause devastating environmental damage.

Figures show about 2,026,575 tons will be excavated across 800 acres in the Lichfield area alone as part of the first phase of the £50 billion project.

Almost 90 per cent of the land is top agricultural quality. If MPs back the project work could start in 2017 with the line between London and Lichfield being completed by 2026.

Untold

The detail, revealed in environmental impact reports, has prompted calls that rural Staffordshire will suffer widespread environmental damage.

Staffordshire Against HS2 campaigner Trevor Forrester said: "The true extent of the damage is untold. HS2 is going to be devastating and will bring no benefits to Staffordshire."

The Woodland Trust and Lichfield MP Michael Fabrick have already voiced fears that ancient woodlands will be destroyed. Staffordshire Wildlife Trust has also expressed fears of the line's impact.

Arrest made on exposure

a 20-YEAR-old man has been arrested in connection with two indecent exposures in the Huntingdon area.

Police responded to two separate calls from the public on Sunday morning, January 5, regarding a man indecently exposing himself.

A man was arrested after being detained by officers in a wooded area off Limepit Lane. He has been bailed, pending further inquiries, to a date later this month.

Witnesses can call DC Rich Williams on 101 quoting incident 234 of January 5.

No police action over online abuse for campaigner

THE woman who tirelessly campaigned for a public inquiry into standards of care at Stafford Hospital has been awarded a CBE in the Queen's New Year's honours list.

But Julie Bailey's award, for services to care of older people, caused a mixed reaction and a storm broke out on social media sites. However, police revealed there would be no criminal investigation into the backlash.

Staffordshire, West Midlands and West Mercia forces aid they had received no complaints about any tweets or Facebook posts. The announcement that Miss Bailey had been included in the Queen's New Year Honours list created a storm online with some blaming her for proposals which would see Stafford Hospital lose key services.

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy has described the online abuse as 'sad'. He said: "The work Julie has done on a national level is very important."

Staffordshire County Council health chief Councillor Robbie Marshall also condemned the personal attacks.

Among those who congratulated Miss Bailey on her accolade was Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt, who has praised her for efforts to bring the hospital scandal to light. Other politicians, health bosses and journalists also welcomed the award.

Former Tory MP Edwina Currie tweeted: "Congrats Julie Bailey @curetheNHS for your CBE. Well deserved and good to see."

Former Downing Street advisor Sean

Worth added: "Julie Bailey's CBE hopefully a small comfort after being terrorised for speaking truth to the NHS establishment."

County councillor Frank Chapman said: "Congratulations to Julie Bailey and Helene Donnelly on their awards in the New Years Honours. Courage and truth will prevail."

Transform

After her 86-year-old mother Bella died at Stafford Hospital, Miss Bailey set up Cure the NHS in her cafe in Lichfield Road, and her fight to get justice and transform the culture of the health service took her all the way to Downing Street.

She was successful in getting a full public inquiry chaired by Robert Francis QC. His report was published last year with 290 recommended reforms for the NHS.

But, while she was nationally praised for her determination to highlight the trust's failings, people in Stafford blame Miss Bailey for a planned downgrade of the town's hospital.

Rebecca Morrison wrote: "Sure, things needed changing but not like this. What we have isn't helping anyone and it's isolating us from the rest of the country and wrecking a community."

Tim Aston added: "Julie Bailey awarded CBE in the New Years Honours List for her dedication in costing thousands of Staffordians a hospital in their town!"

Work on gateway to town resumes

WORK to transform a major gateway into Rugeley is expected to be completed by June.

The £500,000 scheme to reduce Horse Fair in to a single carriageway as part of a bid to make the town pedestrian friendly, resumed this week.

The county council began work in October but stopped through December so businesses would not be affected in the run-up to Christmas.

The work will see railway arches and traffic signals at St Paul's Road removed and junctions will be replaced with roundabouts.

Criticised

A cycle path on the road between Globe Island and Wharf Road will be installed, as well as new crossings to improve safety. New parking bays will also be created.

On a Facebook page for Rugeley, users have criticised the scheme suggesting it will cause businesses to lose trade.

Town council chairman John Rowley said he wanted to reassure traders that the work would cause minimum disruption. He said: "The sooner that it is finished the better it will be for everyone."

"The work is essential to improve infrastructure and will slow down traffic, making the area more pedestrian and shopper friendly."

Witness plea after assault

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after an assault in Cannock on Monday night.

Officers were called to the car park of Chase Leisure Centre, Stafford Road, at around 6.10pm following the attack on the 19-year-old woman.

The suspects are a group of around 10 to 12 male and female teenagers.

The victim suffered minor facial injuries and a serious hand injury and was taken to New Cross Hospital.

MPs' RETHINK CALL ON HOSPITAL PLANS

MPs have urged the Government to urgently rethink radical proposals for downsizing Stafford Hospital.

In a Parliamentary debate on Tuesday, Stafford's Jeremy Lefroy said the planned shake-up did not go far enough and needed to be changed, for the benefit of thousands of patients.

Fellow Conservative, South Staffordshire's Gavin Williamson branded proposals to remove a consultant-led maternity unit as 'deplorable'. He said it would 'put unsustainable pressure' on other trusts.

Current proposals include downgrading key services and moving them to the likes of Stoke and Wolverhampton.

Maintained

Very sick children will no longer be treated at the Weston Road site and the A&E centre will be reduced to 14-hour opening.

Level three critical care will be maintained at the site and a new midwife-led unit introduced.

Mr Lefroy outlined his concerns, calling for inpatient paediatrics to be retained at Stafford, as well as its consultant-led maternity unit.

He said: "This is the right

By Kirsten Rawlins

thing to do - the move will mean both Cannock and Stafford hospitals merge with teaching hospitals, helping them with recruitment and aiding to reduce overhead costs.

"In my view, the proposals do not go far enough to ensure all those that use the services at Stafford are taken into account. These people must be properly represented."

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley said he supported the proposals for Cannock Hospital which will see it taken over by the Royal Wolverhampton Hospitals NHS Trust.

Under the current recommendations by the administrators, Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust will be dissolved.

Oh baby what a sister act for new parents

Rebecca Kinsella, aged 21 of Rugeley with her baby Evie-Rose born on Christmas Eve and sister Nicola, 25, with her daughter Mia-Rose, who was born on New Year's Eve

WHAT a sister act! Rugeley siblings Nicola and Rebecca Kinsella gave birth to baby daughters on special dates - Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve.

Rebecca, of St Thomas Way, Brereton gave birth first, to 8lbs 10oz Evie-Rose at 9.29pm.

Hours after giving birth to Mia-Rose, who weighed 8lbs 7oz, on New Year's Eve, Nicola celebrated her own 25th birthday on January 1. She and partner Tim already have a 23-month-old son, Harley.

The pair grew up in Heath Hayes and are both care workers and former pupils of Chasetown High School.

Nicola, of Springfields Road, said: "It's been really exciting, overwhelming and hectic all rolled into one."

Rebecca said: "We were close before, but the pregnancies have brought me and Nicola closer."

"The girls will grow up together and will be very close. Evie-Rose was a lovely Christmas present," she added.

GERMAN ELECTRIC HEATING IS THE ANSWER

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work-boots. This incredible heating, simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Pitmen and fitness centre in link-up

Nuffield Health Mentor Richard Friend and Hednesford Town player Ben Bailey

PROMOTION is the aim at Hednesford Town FC as the clubs bids to raise awareness of both itself and a nearby gym.

The Pitmen have joined forces with Nuffield Health Fitness and Wellbeing Centre.

The partnership will result in the football club's players and management being able to use the facilities at the East Cannock Road site free of charge. In return, Nuffield have been given two advertising boards around the edge of the pitch at Keys Park and also an advertisement in every home programme for the 2013/14 season.

Scott Smith, from Hednesford Town, said: "I feel that this kind of link-up is of great use to both parties. Not only do we get the benefit of being able to use the gymnasium, swimming pool and fitness rooms, but Nuffield are also being advertised to our supporters as the best place to keep fit in the Cannock area."

Nuffield Health sales and marketing manager, Emma Hassall, said: "Nuffield Cannock are proud to have this partnership with Hednesford Town FC. It's a pleasure to have the players use our facilities and we're glad that we can help them stay in shape."

Stallholders upset as new street market pitches up

A NEW street market being trialed in struggling Cannock town centre has upset regular traders who say their sales have slumped by up to 50 per cent.

Stallholders at the traditional indoor market say some of the newcomers are selling exactly the same produce and are in direct competition.

The new Friday outdoor market of around 20 stalls was launched in November. It is run by Bescot Promotions and will operate for a trial period of six months.

Cannock Chase Council bosses said they hoped the new venture would bring 'vibrancy' to the town centre.

But Doris Bradbury, aged 57, of Heath Hayes, has seen takings on her rug stall plummet by half on this time last year.

She said: "The last 12 months have been especially difficult, now this on top of everything is a big worry."

Tobacconist Tracy Sidebotham, 46, was horrified to see three stalls on the weekly street market selling similar items to her.

She said: "You expect competition from shops but to bring in another market selling the same stock is not on."

Potential

Linda Grainger, aged 65, of BG Jewellery, said a number of potential customers were not bothering to come into the indoor market after buying what they wanted outside.

"The Friday market is right outside, in Market Hall Street, so people see them first and don't bother to come inside."

However, veteran trader Margaret Lavender, who has sold underwear at the indoor market for 40 years, believes more market-style trading is inevitable for the town.

The 71-year-old from Rugeley said: "The big shops don't want to come here so more markets is the way Cannock is going."

Cannock Council's corporate director Tony McGovern said the venture was discussed in advance with the market traders.

"The stalls were arranged up through Market Hall Street at the request of the indoor traders so that they would benefit from the footfall," he said.

"We have also offered indoor market traders a stall outside, free of charge on street market days."

But trader Mary Bailey, 72, said: "Those that pay get the best places. The free ones are not worth having."

Council leader George Adamson said: "We hope by increasing the footfall into the town centre that it will improve trading conditions for existing retailers."

New Year deals on fine food and crafts

THE first fine food and craft market of the New Year will be held at Penkridge Market on Saturday, January 18.

Food, drink and crafts will all be available at the indoor market in Pinfold Lane from 9am to 3.30pm.

There will be a wide range of local produce on display from local cheeses, breads and olives, to homemade cakes, pies and preserves. There will also be local farms, selling their meat, poultry, eggs, game, and pies, fresh from the farm.

Creative

Market manager Matt Williams said: "This will be our first fine food and craft market of the year and we are really looking forward to seeing what our ever-creative traders will have on offer."

"I am sure that there will be plenty of new year deals to be had."

Support for women who breastfeed

WOMEN who are pregnant or breastfeeding are being invited to attend social support groups taking place this month.

Penkridge Buns (Breastfeeding, Understanding and Nurturing Support Group) has organised a series of sessions in Cannock.

Feet supporters will be on hand to offer advice to mothers with babies and young children as well as expectant mothers.

There will be a session at Norton Canes childrens centre on January 15 at 10.30am, and on January 24 at Huntington childrens centre between 10am and 11.30am.

Breastfeeding counsellor Gemma Irving, said: "The women will be branching off and setting up various groups across Cannock."

Housing bid next to a pub

HOMES could be built on land next to a pub in Rugeley. Brewery Marston's PLC, the owners of the Red Lion, in Market Street, are seeking permission for 19 apartments.

They then plan to sell the land to an interested party. But neighbours have raised concerns, saying parking provision is already limited and the problem would be made worse by the new development.

In plans submitted to Cannock Chase Council from Stourbridge-based agent Eclipse Architecture, it states: "The proposed site is currently unoccupied land adjacent to the Red Lion and owned by Marston's PLC who have previously identified the land as surplus to requirements for operational purposes.

"It is intended that the site be offered for sale and the purchasers will determine the type and form of development.

"An indicative layout for 19 apartments is indicated on the application plans."

Neighbouring residents have objected. One, Deborah Byrne, of Market Street, said: "There are already major issues regarding parking in this particular area."

Shortage of skilled staff

BUSINESS leaders predict an economic boost across Cannock Chase but say some firms are struggling to find skilled staff.

Statistics from an economic survey of 2013 by Chase Chamber of Commerce show an upward trend in both home and overseas trade. The survey also showed many companies struggled to fill posts because they could not find staff with the right skills.

Chris Plant, Chase Chamber Director said: "There are jobs out there for people who are prepared to re-skill and the chamber is working hard with further education institutions to re-train people."

Roll up sleeves

DONORS are urged to roll up their sleeves at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, in New Penkridge Road, on Monday, January 13. Session times are from 1.30 to 3.30pm and from 4.30 to 7.30pm. Call 0300 123 23 23 to make an appointment.

Santa's tour of villages is a record-breaker

Alex and Sarah Lavender from Penkridge meet Santa Claus

PENKRIDGE & District Round Table is celebrating a record year for its annual Santa tour.

Father Christmas visited the village and surrounding areas, as well as Asda in Cannock, in the run-up to the festive season, and more than £4,400 was raised for good causes supported by the group.

A Round Table spokesman said: "The seasonal tour, over two weeks, is always popular with children and adults alike and this year saw an exceptional number of people turn out on many cold, wet and windy nights to catch a glimpse of Santa and his sleigh.

"The tour is organised by Penkridge and District Round Table, who again kicked off the festivities with a Santa-dash through the streets of Penkridge.

"Thanks to everyone who turned out to see Santa and who added to the collection—all monies raised are used to support charities and local good causes."

Penkridge and District Round Table has more than 30 members, aged under 45, and is the second largest Round Table branch in the country.

In addition to community events like the Santa dash, the annual fun run and the Penkridge beer festival, they meet socially at least twice monthly undertaking a range of activities that have recently included fire breathing, indoor-climbing, wheelchair basketball, a brewery tour, watching speedway, zorbing and geo-caching.

To join Penkridge Round Table, or for more information, call Peter Machin on 07710 109007.

Driver forced workmate's car into the path of a lorry

A DRIVER was killed when his car was shunted into the path of an oncoming lorry by a work colleague.

Wolverhampton Crown Court heard Sharaf Ebrahimi had started to pull out onto a main road and his VW Bora went around three feet over the white line.

It was struck by a passing Vectra driven by father-of-three Colin Stevenson and the impact sent his car veering into a head-on collision with an oncoming lorry travelling on the opposite side of the road.

Mr Stevenson, aged 27, was not wearing a seat belt. He suffered brain injuries from which he died seven days later after it had been decided to switch off the life support machine.

Addressed

Both men worked at parcel company APC in Norton Canes.

Afghan-born Ebrahimi, aged 37, was not insured at the time because the policy had been cancelled three months earlier although he may not have known this because the correspondence explaining what had happened had been wrongly addressed, the court heard.

Tragedy struck after he had driven down Cresswell Crescent to its junction with Broad Lane, Bloxwich at around 9.30pm on October 2, 2012. Mr Bernard Porter,

by Phillipa Armstrong defending, said: "At the junction he looked to right and left and pulled out without looking right again, as he should.

"If he had done this the accident might well have been avoided. He did not pay enough attention.

"Both men worked for the same employer, as did the partner of the deceased. The defendant went back to his job but could not cope with it emotionally and left."

Father-of-three Ebrahimi from Darlaston Road, Pleck, Walsall, who had a previous conviction for driving without due care and attention, admitted causing the death of Mr Stevenson by careless driving.

He was given a six-month jail sentence suspended under supervision for two years with a four month night time curfew and 200 hours unpaid work. He also got a seven-year driving ban.

Judge Michael Dudley told him: "The most likely explanation for this tragedy is a moment of inattention."

Get in step with new salsa classes

FROM complete beginners to twinkling enthusiasts, dancers are being encouraged to step into the new year by taking up salsa classes.

The fun social dance classes are being run across the Midlands to get people exercising with a smile on their face.

Salsa dance teacher Ryan Mellis is now running the sessions at nightspots in Cannock and Wolverhampton and he is planning to expand this further to locations in West Bromwich, Rowley Regis and Smethwick over the coming months. The 49-year-old from West Bromwich said the aim is for people of all abilities to enjoy themselves in a social setting.

"You don't have to be anything like Strictly," he said.

Enjoy

"It is basically for people to come out, have a nice social evening and enjoy dance at the same time.

"A lot of people have heard about salsa but don't know where to find it. We are trying to bring it to a lot more local people and make it more accessible."

Sessions are held at Walkabout, in Queen Street, Wolverhampton, on Mondays and Tuesdays and Mojito Bar in Bridge Street, Bridgton, on Wednesdays.

More recently a new class has been launched at the Bank bar and lounge in Wolverhampton Road on Sundays.

There is a session for beginners at 7.30pm, then improvers at 8.30pm followed by a social dance from 9.30pm. It costs £5 to attend, call 07961 514074.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

USEFUL statistics. During the whole of 2013 in a UK populated by 60 million people, only three people per day, on average, managed to lock themselves in lavatories. Curiously reassuring, isn't it?

TIP for 2014. Don't get too excited over reports that Britain will have the biggest economy in Europe within 15 years, as some pundits are predicting. It is perfectly possible to live in a truly massive economy and still be very, very poor. Ask anyone in China.

THIS year marks the beginning of the commemoration of the First World War. Prepare for a creeping barrage of commemoration, comment and endless re-examination. But I guarantee nothing you see in 2014 will capture the black humour of the Tommies of 1914-18 better than John Jackson's tale of being buried alive by German shells. It's in his memoir, Private 12768, which was written in 1926 and published 80 years later. Jackson describes how the shells came ever closer until two dugouts full of British soldiers were obliterated by direct hits. Miraculously, all the Tommies survived and dug themselves out. As he puts it: "What lucky lads we were. Fourteen buried and all alive and kicking at the end of the funeral."

JACKSON'S words reminded me of my grandfather's war diary for 1919. He was with the Army of Occupation in Germany and had been gassed a few months earlier. A sudden dose of pneumonia almost killed him. Or as he recorded dryly: "That was when I nearly became a German landowner."

WHILE it's good to see First World War commemorative coins being produced by the Royal Mint, what on earth have they done to Lord Kitchener? The feature everyone noticed, apart from Kitchener's moustache, was his fierce squint. On the coin his eyes stare straight ahead, ocularly corrected for posterity. Kitchener without a squint is like Cromwell without the warts.

AND a special New Year wassail to Ruth Goodman, presenter of Tudor Monastery Farm (BBC2) a series which recreates rural life as it was in the 1500s, warts, warlocks and all. One moment they're all merrily carolling and the next (I bet this scene brought complaints) they're carving and twisting the head off a slaughtered pig. This is history in the raw, so authentic you can almost smell it. Goodman must be the only female presenter on television to face the cameras without even a dash of make-up. What a pro.

ONE New Year's resolution I shall try to follow: Think more positively about food banks. My initial reaction in 2013 was that there was a political agenda at work. How better to embarrass the Government than to set up hundreds of food banks and arrange photo-opportunities of hungry Brits queuing for their daily bread? It still strikes me as a rather American solution, designed to slap a sticking plaster over the problem than to tackle some of the social evils causing poverty - 24-hour boozing, online gambling and payday loans, for a start. But if kind people are prepared to donate food for the poor, and if charities are prepared to hand it out and if other people are willing to accept it, maybe we should applaud it, as we applaud other charities. Who knows, maybe this is David Cameron's "Big Society" in action.

A FRIEND received a onesie for Christmas, followed by another onesie at the New Year. So does she have two onesies - or a twosie?

"I BELIEVE we should move to ban it," declares the Children's Commissioner for England Maggie Atkinson who says children need legal protection against being slapped by their parents. Dr Atkinson has no children of her own. And until you have actually had to deal with your own toddler attacking other kids, or your over-excited preschooler dashing into the traffic, then you really are in no position to lecture the rest of us.

Fundraising is in store for cat charity

MORE than £1,300 was raised for Rugeley Cats Society from a festive raffle held at a supermarket in the town.

The grand Christmas Draw took place at Morrisons on December 21 and had a top prize of £50 store vouchers.

Tickets were sold in-store on the day and the winning tickets were drawn by store manager Paul Sisson.

Sallie Young, founder of Rugeley Cats Society would like to thank all who bought tickets, those who donated prizes and Rugeley Morrisons for their support towards the cause. A total of £1,369 was raised ensuring that the cats and kittens being fostered over Christmas are kept warm, fed and well looked after.

Litter

However, Sallie said that with 18 cats waiting to be re-homed, one of which is due to have a litter of kittens, the fundraising activities would resume in the New Year.

Mel is bowled over by an MBE in honours list

TWO women who helped to expose appalling care at Stafford Hospital and prompted the biggest shake up in the culture of the NHS in its history have been recognised in the New Year's honours list.

Cure the NHS founder Julie Bailey was honoured with a CBE for services to the care of older people, while whistleblower Helene Donnelly was awarded an OBE, in recognition of her work to support NHS staff to raise concerns and improve care for patients.

Ms Bailey became the face of a campaign calling for a public inquiry into failings at Stafford following the death of her 86-year-old mother Bella in November 2007. After winning that fight she has continued to appeal for radical reform of the NHS.

Former Stafford Hospital nurse Mrs Donnelly blew the whistle on appalling care at the hospital - which led to hundreds of preventable deaths between 2005 and 2009 - and was a key witness in the public inquiry led by Robert Francis QC into Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust.

The inquiry heard harrowing stories of patients so thirsty they were forced to drink from vases while others screamed in agony amid chronic staffing shortages.

Honest

Mrs Donnelly said: "My first reaction was disbelief really, I thought why me? I suppose I don't feel I've done anything that remarkable."

"I'm absolutely delighted and really this honour is a recognition for everyone who is trying to genuinely raise concerns and build a more open and honest health service."

Meanwhile, Mel Evans has a lot to celebrate in 2014. Not only does he mark 50 years since making his bowling playing debut in the Cannock Thursday League, he has now been awarded an MBE for services to Crown Green Bowling.

Mr Evans, who lives in Heath Hayes, spends most of his time playing and promoting Crown Green Bowls. He said he was "overwhelmed" and "surprised" to receive his MBE.

He said: "I have throughout my career enjoyed a considerable amount of success but have always tried to put something back into the game by promoting leagues, tournaments and media work."

Mr Evans has played for Chads Moor Progressive Working Men's Club for the past 46 years. During his career he has played more than 100 times for Staffordshire and won around 130 singles and doubles titles around the country.

Pauline Kelsey has been a pillar of the community in Great Wyrley for 40 years - and says she was 'stunned' to find out she would receive the British Empire Medal. Mrs Kelsey has helped organise the village's carnival since 1977 in her role as secretary of the event's committee, and is also a committee member at the Great Wyrley Townswomen's Guild, the village's senior citizens centre and the local history society.

Delighted

Peter Dartford, chief fire officer at Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service, receives the Queen's Fire Service Medal.

Mr Dartford joined Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service in 1999 as a senior divisional officer and was promoted to assistant chief fire officer and deputy chief fire officer before being appointed chief fire officer and chief executive of

Cure The NHS founder Julie Bailey CBE

Whistleblower Helene Donnelly OBE

Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service in 2008. Philip Atkins, Leader of Staffordshire County Council, said: "I'm delighted to see so many people from Staffordshire being recognised for the work they have done in this year's honours list."

Ian Dudson, Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire said: "I am very pleased that so many individuals in Staffordshire have received honours in this New Year list."

"The recognition from Her Majesty The Queen in the form of these personal honours gives us all the opportunity to add our congratulations as well as our appreciation and gratitude for all that each of them, in their respective ways, contribute to our local communities."

Boat will be used by school as library

IT'S all hands on deck at a Rugeley school after it secured funding to convert a narrowboat into a library.

Chancel Primary has been awarded a £10,000 lottery grant, which has been used to create an outdoor learning space on a 40ft boat.

The Wolsley Road school does not have a library of its own and uses a corridor to store its books in.

Sarah Mollitt, chairman of the school's Parents, Teachers and Friends Association, applied to the Lloyds Community Fund in August and the school was awarded the cash in November.

Pupils

Miss Mollitt said: "It's not unusual for a primary school not to have a library, so I came up with the idea of having a space for the pupils to go and read books."

"We wanted to make better use of the outdoor space we have and a boat is a very unique thing to have in the school grounds."

"We visited Nick Thorpe, a boat builder in Hixon to discuss a build date and he got to work making the boat and finished it on Christmas Eve."

"Now we need to raise money to kit it out with furniture and transform it."

Traditional ceremony

STAFFORDSHIRE Wildlife Trust's Wolsley Centre hosts its traditional wassailing ceremony next weekend.

Apple tree wassailing goes back to Celtic times with the aim of 'waking up' the tree at the start of the year, to encourage the sap to start flowing and also to appease the spirit of the tree and encourage a good crop of fruit.

The ceremony takes place from 2.30 to 6pm on Sunday, January 12, and will feature morris men, clog dancers, wood-themed stalls and activities.

Metal theft trial

A MAN charged with stealing up to £3,000 of scrap metal faces trial on March 11. Thomas Daniel, of Fieldhouse Road, Hednesford, is accused of stealing the metal from PDM Produce in Great Chatwell, Staffordshire. The 22-year-old pleaded not guilty to theft by finding at Cannock Magistrates Court.

Sentence for fraud welcomed

A COUNCIL chief has welcomed a crown court judge's comments after a benefit cheat was sentenced.

Stafford Borough Councillor Ken Williamson spoke out after 55-year-old Stephen Wilkinson was given a four-month suspended prison term for falsely claiming more than £40,000 in housing and council tax benefits.

The nine-year fraud was uncovered following an investigation by Stafford Borough and Cannock Chase councils.

In sentencing, Judge Mark Eades said people cheating the public purse meant there was less money to provide vital services to others.

Wilkinson, who was living at Brownhills Road, Norton Canes, admitted failing to notify the authorities of a change in circumstances and was given the four-month sentence, suspended for a year, a 12-month supervision order, and told to do 150 hours' unpaid community work.

After the case, Councillor Williamson said: "We are determined to prevent people cheating tax payers out of money they are not entitled to. It is unfair on all those people who do pay their dues."

Public can have a say

CHASE residents are being asked their views on plans to make developers contribute to the area they are building in.

The Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) aims to be a fairer and more efficient way of developments contributing to the infrastructure needs of an area.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, Cannock Chase Council's leader for planning and economic development, said: "Local residents and businesses may wish to comment specifically on what items of infrastructure they think their local community needs as a result of new development."

Talk on wildlife

THE Cannock Group of the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust has an illustrated talk on 'the compilation of the new Staffordshire flora' by Sue Lawley next week. It takes place at St Luke's Church Centre in Cannock on Wednesday January 15 at 7.30pm. Entrance is £1.50, to include refreshments.

Jobs boost as printing firm lands new contract

Commercial director Stephen Egerton

A COMMERCIAL and digital printing firm has signed a contract to install a range of cutting-edge printers, binders and laminators, as well as other finishing equipment, in its Cannock headquarters.

The contract will result in improved customer service and is part of a planned 'insourcing' investment process that will see new jobs created at family firm KJB.

KJB, of Beechwood Business Park, plans to continually increase the speed and quality of the service and product range it provides to its customers.

"We've undergone a major business transformation, following heavy investment in digital printing," explained commercial director Stephen Egerton.

"We now have 2,000 customers across the UK and print for all business sectors from large blue chips, supermarkets, the media and training sector and major energy providers to small businesses. We can now produce a range of tailored and bespoke products 'in house' that were traditionally classed as 'specialised'."

Part of the investment is the Duplo DC645i, which handles creasing, cutting and slitting in the same pass. It means KJB will be to offer improved printing services for everything from menus, flyers and inserts to cards and brochures. KJB is also installing an AutoBond Laminator, one of the largest available in the West Midlands.

KJB has invested in a new Renz Wiro Binder, capable of binding up to 300 books per hour or up to 400 calendars. The company is also taking delivery of a PUR binder, manufactured by Duplo. This piece of technology utilises a glue binding technique, called PUR binding, which uses a 'super glue' to create books with a similar appearance to a paperback book.

Mr Egerton said: "We plan to further upgrade our digital press department, with the addition of a new Xerox machine."

£5m earmarked on hospital staff redundancy payments

MORE than £5 million has been earmarked in redundancy payments for staff at the trust that runs Stafford and Cannock Chase hospitals.

Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust will be dissolved with the University Hospital of North Staffordshire taking over Stafford Hospital and the Royal Wolverhampton Trust running the one at Cannock.

Trust jobs shunned by juniors

JUNIOR doctors are shunning jobs at the trust due to take over the running of Stafford Hospital. They fear it will be damaging for their careers, it has been claimed.

A report to the board at University Hospital of North Staffordshire said the Mid-Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust scandal played a 'negative' role in why young medics were pursuing job opportunities away from the county.

Newly-qualified doctors from Keele University who have trained at UHNS are turning their backs on the hospital, say staff.

Professor Andy Garner, dean of the faculty of health at Keele University, said: "The Staffordshire name has now become a CV reputation issue for them."

UHNS medical director Robert Courteney-Harris added: "Students say they have a good experience here but some have expressed concern about how it will affect their future careers."

Two years ago just 23 of the 116 graduates filled first-year junior doctor jobs at the complex where a total of 51 positions were available.

Most medical staff will transfer to the other trusts by autumn if the changes go ahead, but a number of administration and senior management posts will go.

Administrators are yet to reveal how many jobs will go but they plan to spend £5.3m in redundancies with the money coming from central government.

Figures in the administrators' final report show the amount would be paid out over three years as the transition takes place.

Changes

The report states: "All the current staff at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust will be impacted by the Trust Special Administrators' draft recommendations, through the dissolution of the trust and/or by the changes in services provided at Stafford Hospital."

"It is likely that any negative impacts would affect those on low pay or with limited qualifications the most."

Under proposals, Stafford Hospital will be downgraded with key services moving to Stoke and Wolverhampton.

A midwife-led maternity unit at Stafford will be able to deliver 1,000 babies a year with riskier births taking place at neighbouring hospitals along with major surgery and severe emergencies.

A&E at Stafford will be reduced to 14-hour opening.

Knit and natter group grows in numbers

A WEEKLY knit and natter session is going from strength to strength in Cannock Chase.

Sandra Breakwell, of the Heath Hayes Knit and Natter group, has described the weekly session as a network of support after it was set up to support widows in the area.

The group is open to all regardless of age, situation or gender. It was launched around 18 months ago after Mrs Breakwell lost her husband Brian to cancer of the oesophagus at the age of 62. Mrs Breakwell says the group now feels more like a family, supporting each member wherever possible.

Welcome

"Since we launched the group it's gone from strength to strength," said 65-year-old grandmother-of-two Mrs Breakwell, of Norton Canes.

"Absolutely anyone is welcome - and you don't need to bring knitting either. People can bring whatever they like - or just chat. The group was mainly set up as a get together for widows, but it's just a really friendly, lovely little group. "For example, one girl who comes has had three or four brain tumours, and she simply comes along for a catch up and a cup of tea."

"Even if people have grandchildren or children to look after, they're welcome to bring them along."

The group meets at the Hedgesford Road library every Thursday from 10am to 1pm. Entry is 20p, which includes tea, coffee and biscuits.

Cyclists invited to join in rides

CYCLISTS are invited to a series of rides organised by Walsall & Family Cycling Group and Chase Cycling.

These include a ladies-only ride, setting out from the Cannock Chase Visitor Centre at Marquis Drive at 10am on January 19.

Regular rides include a 10am start every Wednesday from the junction of Main Street and Church Lane, Lichfield. A barn dance and buffet is being held at Chasewater Sailing Club on February 22.

Biker airlifted to hospital after fall

A MOUNTAIN biker was injured on a Cannock Chase bike trail and airlifted to hospital with a pelvic injury.

West Midlands Ambulance Service was called to an isolated area of the Red Monkey Trail just before 2pm on January 2.

Ambulance staff were assisted by local rangers from the Forestry Commission in locating the patient, a man in his 40s. He was airlifted to Derby Royal Infirmary.

Woman cut free following crash

A WOMAN was taken to hospital after a crash involving a car and a lorry.

Fire crews were called to Orbital Way, Cannock, at 2.35pm on New Year's Eve, after reports that a blue Renault Clio had collided with an HGV. The female motorist, thought to be in her mid-20s, was trapped with suspected neck and back injuries.

Firefighters cut her free, and she was taken to hospital. The HGV driver was unhurt.

Gift boxes sent out to soldiers

MORE than 700 gift boxes were sent over to troops from the Mercian Regiment serving in Afghanistan.

Volunteers met at the Staffordshire Regiment Museum in Whittington near Lichfield to fill the boxes with books, toothpaste, T-shirts, sweets and savoury snacks donated by the public.

Love Your Block

RESIDENTS are being urged to look after their area in a Cannock Chase Council campaign called 'Love your block'. It encourages householders and tenants to get involved and become resident champions.

HOT on the heels of shadow transport minister Mary Creagh's outburst at the apparent sexism of Thomas the Tank Engine, it now appears that another inhabitant of the Westminster bubble has been spending a little too much time in the children's library again.

This time it's independent consultant Caroline Shenton, who has been commissioned to come up with how to turn the Houses of Parliament into a 'visitor attraction'. Her proposal is for a Willy Wonka-style great glass elevator on the side of the Victoria Tower.

I know politicians love banging on about 'transparency', but this is ridiculous.

WHEN they said we're all in this together, it never for one moment occurred to me that would extend to ladies and gentlemen of the Bar.

No, not that kind of bar. A group of our learned friends were out on strike this week, manning the picket lines in their full clobber, gowns, winged-collars, and wigs, the whole shebang.

Cuts to the legal aid budget has apparently left some of them struggling to get by, says Mr Nigel Lithman QC, who appears to be a sort of shop steward for m'learned friends. He warns that unless barristers are paid more, many of us will soon find ourselves living next door to paedophiles and rapists because there will be nobody to prosecute them. Not that he would want to cause any undue alarm, you understand.

Needless to say, there have been bitter arguments about how much barristers actually earn. Justice Secretary Chris Grayling says they typically earn £84,000 a year. Mr Lithman - doesn't he sound like he should be a judge on X Factor? - says it is closer to £37,000.

I'm sure they would agree, though, that there's only one way to settle this. Full public inquiry, led by a top judge, senior silks on either side, and wigs all round.

What do we want? An independent inquiry. When do we want it? In the fullness of time.

IT would take a heart of stone not to see the funny side of the ship full of global-warming fans who set sail to Antarctica to investigate the disappearing ice cap - and ended up getting stuck in it.

At the time of writing, their ship has been stuck in the 'vanishing' ice for 10 days, as is the Chinese ice-breaker ship sent out to rescue them. Eventually they were freed by a third ship, an Australian icebreaker.

Quite how many hydrocarbons have been emitted during this ill-fated school field trip, but I suspect it will take quite a few low-energy light bulbs and cycle trips by the time we're finished.

Traditional pub grub at Hail to the Ale

Gary Morton serves David Bowden and John Penn

All hail the ale as drinkers raise glass to micro-pubs

Many more drinkers are toasting the success of micro-pubs. LAURA BLYTH reports

NO TELEVISIONS, games machines or loud, blaring music, and hot food is certainly off the menu. Micro-pubs are a very different breed to traditional watering holes.

They pride themselves on offering locally brewed real ales and fruity ciders, all in the confines of a single room.

And the concept of sipping pints and rubbing shoulders with the same old faces in the cosy setting of what feels like a front room is growing in popularity up and down the country.

In the past four years, around 40 micro-pubs have flung open their doors to drinkers. Twenty-four have opened in the past 12 months alone.

Ordinary

The first micro-pub to open in the West Midlands was Hail to the Ale on the corner of Pendeford Avenue, Claregate, Wolverhampton, last year. It was the 32nd to open in the country.

In its first few months the pub has gone down a storm in the local area, according to owner Gary Morton, aged 53, who runs it with his wife Angela, 50.

The pair founded the Essington-based Morton Brewery six years ago.

Mr Morton said: "Micro-pubs are a stripped down version of ordinary pubs. It has been going excellently since we opened."

"We opened our doors quietly on a Thursday evening. Within half an hour, all the tables and chairs were taken."

"The three weekends that followed, we were absolutely packed. People in the area felt something like this was needed."

"It's comfortable and nostalgic for people. It's a completely different concept. I imagine there'll be a couple of thousand more micro-pubs opening in the UK in the next few years."

Rather than chips straight out of the

Angela Morton who runs Hail to the Ale with husband Gary, with English Eleven, from their brewery is Essington fryer served up in some pubs, Hail to the Ale dishes up traditional pub nibbles such as pork scratchings, pickled onions, pickled eggs and pies. And there isn't a cheap looking alcopop in sight, or any spirits.

Mr Morton continued: "Ordinary pubs try to do too much. They try to cater for too many people and end up not appealing to anyone."

"We came up with the idea to open a micro-pub in March this year. We'd seen a feature on micro-pubs on TV and thought it was perfect for us."

"We have a good group of regulars. But we are also seeing new faces coming in. It seems as if there are still people just finding out about us."

"We appeal to middle-aged to elderly people. But we've still had to ask for ID from time-to-time from some younger drinkers."

Plans have also been submitted to open a new micro-pub in Lichfield. Proposals for a change of use for a shop unit in Tamworth Street have been submitted by Paul Hudson and a decision will be made by planning bosses at Lichfield District Council in the coming months.

John Nightingale, spokesman for the Wolverhampton branch of Camra, said he was not surprised by the growing popularity of micro-pubs. He said: "We think they are an excellent idea. Pubs don't have to be huge places selling fizzy alcopops and spirits with blaring jukeboxes. We expect more to open in the near future."

The first micro-pub ever to open was the Butchers Arms, in Herne, Kent in 2005 and that was followed by a flurry from 2009 until this year.

The only other micro-pub open in the Midlands is the Cask & Pottle in Tutbury near Burton. It opened in October this year. There are also five new micro-pubs due to open soon in the country after plans were given the thumbs-up.

1983...

A JOB centre was besieged by hundreds of people applying for work at the Austin Rover car plant in Longbridge. Job-hunters defied the snow and rain and started queuing outside the employment exchange in Northfield before it had opened. Around 600 people applied for fewer than 400 posts. But it was all in vain as the positions were already filled.

A POLICE sergeant was wounded by a Zulu spear when a man thrust it through a bedroom door during a house siege in Birmingham. A 34-year-old man, who was eventually persuaded to come out after seven hours, was detained under the Mental Health Act.

1993...

CORONATION Street actress Anne Kirkbride was set for a return to the cobbles after recovering from throat cancer. The actress, who played Deirdre Barlow had a lump removed from her neck.

EDUCATION Secretary John Patten revealed that he had been 'flogged' from time to time at his strict Jesuit school. But despite this experience, he said he regretted that the cane had been banned by European court rulings as he launched a new crackdown on bullying and racial harassment in schools.

THE world of cricket was mourning the death of commentator Brian 'Johnners' Johnston, at the age of 81. His double act with Henry 'Blowers' Blofeld on Test Match Special, which frequently made much use of schoolboy humour, would often leave listeners, not to mention himself, in fits of giggles.

2003...

SEVERAL shops were forced to close as Brierley Hill town centre was overcome with a swarm of rats. In scenes reminiscent of the Pied Piper, one woman walking along Pearson Street turned round to discover she was being followed by around half a dozen rodents.

BRITNEY Spears' whirlwind marriage was set to end as suddenly as it began, with reports that she was trying to get her vows annulled within hours of making them at Las Vegas' Little White Chapel. Sources said the 5.30am ceremony, where she was walked down the aisle by a barman, was a joke which had gone too far.

A MOTHER and son were rescued from a house in Wolverhampton after an electric blanket being used to heat home brew caught fire. Assistant divisional fire officer David Glenis warned that electric blankets should never be used in this way.

Go-ahead for homes plan on the site of former club

AN artist's impression has been released of nine new homes which will take the place of a former working men's club in Cannock.

The go-ahead has been given to turn the site in Edward Street into a small housing estate.

Edward Street Working Men's Club had been a hub of entertainment for almost 80 years after opening in 1935.

After closing in February last year in the wake of falling numbers and rising overheads, it was bought at auction in the spring.

Since then it has been demolished by new owner, developers Marshall Bell Ltd based in Cannock, who plan to build nine houses.

Demand

A pile of building rubble currently fills the site.

A report from Louise Tandy, on the council's planning team, said the district needed to provide 197 affordable homes a year for residents, with family homes being in high demand.

The five two-bedroomed and four three-bedroomed houses would help to fill this need and would be allocated to people with a local connection to Cannock Chase.

Staffordshire County Council have asked more parking spaces between some of the properties because of the dangers involved in some householders being forced to park on the main road. Nearby residents have voiced regret over losing an historic landmark.

Tom Harrison said: "It's a shame to see it go, I've lived round the corner for 15 years."

"It could be a rough old place - under certain owners, even the coke was watered down - but my dad took me there every weekend for pool and I always liked it." The working men's club originally operated from a wooden hut. But in the 1960s, demand for a bigger venue resulted in a brick-built building with various rooms, including three bars, a pool room, two snooker rooms, a function room and a dance hall.

In its heyday, the club could attract up to 500 people a night, holding hugely popular dances through the 1950s, 60s and 70s.

Even in the 1980s and 1990s the number of members on the club's books was around 15,000. Former manager Mark Owen, of Norton Canes, ran the club with his partner Diane Feltham for four years.

He said: "It's such a shame. If you talk to anybody over the age of 55 they'll know what a great place it was."

As a condition of planning approval, Marshall Bell will have to hand over £15,000 towards, among other things, providing primary school education in the area.

A feather in cap if Ivy House is saved

AS a regular visitor to Cannock from North Wales I should like to complain in the strongest possible terms about the proposal to demolish Ivy House in the so-called name of progress by the local authority.

Ivy House still seems to have many associations for local people from the days of service as a maternity unit.

The building was designed by Edward Holmes, a famous Midlands architect. Ivy House as a building has many architectural merits and it is a good example of Victorian England.

It is evident that many people in Cannock wish to preserve the building and keep an architectural gem in the local community. Staffordshire County Council should respect the cause of local democracy. The preservation of Ivy House would certainly be seen as a feather in the cap of the county council.

C LEACH, St Asaph

Late-night event well-advertised

FOLLOWING the letter from Mrs Iris Wharton in The Chronicle of Thursday, December 19, I would like to set the record straight.

The late night shopping event was entirely organised and run by the Rugeley Traders Association and actually it was the fourth year in us doing it.

Whoever advised Mrs Wharton that Diane Todd or anyone from the respective councils were involved in the planning or execution of the evening were misled. The Rugeley Traders Association advertised the event through this paper and social media websites. In addition we paid for two large banners spanning Globe House.

I found it astounding that Mrs Wharton failed to notice that the event was taking place at all.

For the record there were 50 stallholders and with the exception of one box which was left the town was clear of any litter or debris from any stallholder whatsoever. The day/night was unseasonably windy and we can only assume that litter was blown from all over the town during that time.

To give people plenty of notice for this year's event, the date is Friday November 28, same place, same time.

We would like to thank all of the people who attended the event in making it a huge success.

CHRIS GREEN, Chairman
Rugeley Traders Association

Common decency forgotten

CAN someone please enlighten me as to why firms advertising employment, either ignore applications, or on the rare occasion an interview is granted, fail to advise of its results?

Both of my grandsons, like many others, are desperate to find work and have fallen victim to the above on a number of occasions.

The size of the company appears to make no difference. They do not seem to have the common decency to follow what in my day would be normal work practice.

In this day and age with email, text, telephone or mail readily available surely it is not difficult or expensive to do the decent thing.

I must say I find it somewhat surprising that large superstores in this area, no doubt with human resources departments, are particularly guilty of this practice.

I would have thought it not beyond expectation for at least a pre-printed letter to be supplied to applicants and interviewees.

J PLATT, Heath Hayes

Priority should be to get rid of slabs

I FIND it rather puzzling to read that Councillor Winnington and the relevant committees say they want to see a "pedestrian friendly" Rugeley and then produce the 'Horse Fair' scheme which is neither pedestrian nor friendly.

If they really want to make Rugeley town centre more friendly and safe then the priority should be the replacement of the 'rustic' look and very dangerous slabs which cause accidents and injuries.

I myself have fallen outside Iceland and have witnessed others tripping over the slabs.

I invite all Rugeley councillors to partake of a walker, shopping trolley, pushchair or crutches and then see how difficult and dangerous they are and then let us know what action they intend to take to save further injuries.

J LOVEROCK, Rugeley

No more relief as works to continue

JUST when everyone heaves a sigh of relief that the town's road planners have seen sense and restored the Horse Fair to its original four lane state, we learn that the alterations will continue after Christmas.

So having learned nothing from the single lane weeks of lines of extended queuing, inability to get onto the Horse Fair from Lichfield Street, the planners intend to continue to impose this on us regardless.

Can we suppose that none of the perpetrators of this nonsense has ever tried to get through Rugeley when the single lanes were in operation? Or do they live elsewhere and won't have to suffer this bottleneck like Rugeley residents are going to have to?

I suggest the planners take a trip to Welshpool where a similar mess has been made to satisfy the requirements of a new supermarket.

Set a proper example

I HAVE recently watched the annual Youth Parliamentary meeting on TV. I enjoyed it very much, but was annoyed by the high pitched whooping (mainly by the females) as each speaker finished their speech. I would ask them to act properly, and to set an example to the senior members of Parliament. Rudely jeer and boo while a minister is speaking and act like spoiled brats.

Fond memories of motor dealership

AT this time of year we often reflect on the years past. I have lived in Canada for the past 20 years, but have the fondest memories of my time spent working at the Ford dealer Churchbridge Motor Garage. Although no trace of the garage or the coach firm exist today, the memory of many happy times remain. We had some good times and I wonder about the people that made the experience so memorable. Where are they now? Did you work for Churchbridge back in the 1980s? It would be great to have a get together sometime in 2014.

HUNDREDS of people celebrated the New Year in style by hopping aboard three steam trains on a heritage railway.

The annual mince pie specials event at the Chasewater Railway attracted nearly 1,000 visitors on New Year's Day. They got to ride on two historic engines and sample mince pies throughout the day. One of the trains in service was the railway's largest locomotive, the RSH Nechells Number Four, from the former Nechells Power Station in Birmingham, which has since been replaced by the Star City complex.

Parcel

Bosses were also showing off the Mark One carriage, which has been repainted, with the old parcel area being fitted out to provide more seating.

Volunteer administrator Dan Weeks said: "We always get a good turnout and the weather has been a bit rough but it hasn't put people off."

"We do our Santa specials over Christmas but we always like to hold this event too to say thank you to everyone for supporting us through the year."

Edith's love for family is secret of turning 100

HER family claim it her 'abundance of love' for them has seen her through to her 100th birthday.

And relatives rallied around Edith Deakin as she celebrated with a big cake, a card from the Queen, and lots of presents of chocolate.

Edie, nee Bishop, was born seven months before the outbreak of The Great War on January 3, 1914 at her home on Reservoir Road, Churchill, Hednesford.

Son Rex, 77 and from Mount Pleasant, Kingswinford, said: "I think I know what her secret is - it was being very loving. We were raised during the war when things were a bit difficult with rationing and things, and we didn't have a lot of money, but we never felt we were under-privileged because we had an abundance of love.

Siblings

"She was also always hard working, and had lots of love for everyone," he added.

Mr Deakin, one of three children along with Tony, 74, and Irene, 72, still meets with his siblings and their partners on a regular basis to keep in touch, something he puts down to his mother's loving influence. Edie married William Deakin on January 12 1935 but has been widowed for 35 years. She also has six grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren with one more on the way.

She worked until around the age of 75, having been employed in a number of roles throughout her life, and has always lived in the Cannock area.

Mr Deakin said his mother went to weekly dance classes at her local church until she was nearly in her 90s. She marked the milestone with a small party for family and friends at Ashcroft Hollow Nursing Home, Huntington, where she now lives.

Bus ride ticket to 50 years of happiness

Fred and Monica Dean from Cotton Grove, Pye Green, Cannock, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. A COUPLE who met on the bus ride to work have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Monica and Fred Dean say they couldn't imagine life without each other. They exchanged vows at St Peter's Church, in Hednesford, in 1963. The couple, of Cotton Grove, Pye Green, met as they travelled on the bus to work. Mrs Dean, aged 69, was actually born in the house next door to where they now live. She at the time worked at Town Mills sewing factory in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock. Mr Dean, 72, worked at Halfords gas works before 17-years at Littleton Colliery. They have three sons, Kevin, Stephen and Melvyn, two daughters, Karen and Alison, 18 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. "We have a good marriage and I can't imagine life without him," said Mrs Dean.

New grounds equipment

COUNCIL chiefs are to splash out £330,000 on new lawnmowers and grounds maintenance equipment.

The 17 pieces of equipment will come into use this year at Cannock Chase Council. They will include six mowers, two trailers and a fertiliser spreader to be used for the upkeep of parks and public spaces.

Bosses say the money needs to be spent to avoid having to pay more on repairs in the future. It comes after the authority agreed to spend £272,500 on 17 new street cleaners.

Useful

In a report, head of commissioning Tom Walsh said: "The existing items of machinery in use are currently on short-term hire and are reaching the end of their useful life and are more likely to be subject to breakdowns."

"As such it has been identified that these items of machinery are replaced ideally before the start of the next financial year.

"Given that the lead-in time for such items of specialist machinery is typically around 16 weeks, it is necessary to commence the procurement process promptly in order to expedite delivery for the early part of 2014/15."

"The purchase of this specialist machinery will ensure an uninterrupted service, reduce maintenance time as well as helping lower the impact on the environment."

Slimming World girls cuddle up with Paddy

Slimming World consultants Gill Fletcher, Emma Taylor and Rachel Shirley meet TV host Paddy McGuinness

A GROUP of Slimming World consultants met comedian and TV presenter Paddy McGuinness at their annual awards ceremony.

The team, who run weekly Slimming World groups in Cannock, were delighted to cuddle up to Paddy when he co-hosted the Slimming World Awards with the organisation's chairman and founder Margaret Miles-Bramwell OBE.

The Take Me Out host said: "I was genuinely amazed to hear about what a difference Slimming World makes to people's lives. I met lots of people who'd lost incredible amounts of weight and it had totally changed their lives."

Slimming World Consultant Gill Fletcher said meeting Paddy at Birmingham's International Convention Centre, topped a great year for Slimming World groups in Cannock. "We're so proud of all of the slimmers in the area - many have achieved their target weights and been able to do things they never thought possible before slimming down."

To find your nearest group, visit www.slimming-world.com or call 0844 897 8000.

Tree sales dip is blamed on price increase

SALES of Christmas trees at the Birches Valley Forestry Centre fell by five per cent last year, with the drop partly blamed on a price increase.

Around 500 fewer trees were sold at the site, near Rugeley, but bosses say the drop was expected.

Around 8,500 firs were sold compared to 9,000 in 2012. Forestry Commission woodsmen chopped down fewer trees in anticipation.

Chiefs said this year's price increase combined with the trend in fake trees in response to the prolonged economic downturn had affected sales.

However they predicted selling 8,500 at the Cannock Chase base and were pleased to reach their target.

Pheasants

Some 200 unsold trees have been sold to a farmer in Stafford to provide a refuge for pheasants to lay eggs and rear their young.

The price of an average 6ft tree rose to £45, an increase of more than 10 per cent on the previous year. A 4ft fir or pine was priced at £35 while a 14ft fir went up to £125.

The Forestry Commission, which maintains the woodland, blamed the price hike on the increased cost of having to transport trees hundreds of miles to sell from Birches Valley. As the Midlands climate is not wet enough to grow Norway spruce - the most traditional Christmas tree - these are brought in from North Yorkshire.

However the Chase does grow its own Lodgepole Pine and Nordmann Fir trees. The supply is supplemented by forests in Scotland. Cash generated is all ploughed back into the forest.

Andy Coggins, recreation manager at Cannock Forest, pointed out prices had been frozen for the last three years before £5 was added to all trees for the 2013 season.

Mr Coggins said: "Some people have felt that artificial trees would be more cost-effective in the long-term, while also the price rise probably had an effect."

Relaxation workshop

PARENTS and carers of children with special needs are invited to take part in a relaxation workshop. The event is being held at Cannock Community Fire Station in Old Hednesford Road and will offer advice and support to people who have to deal with the demands of caring for someone. Bookable sessions are available between 10am and 1pm or from 6-8.30pm on Tuesday, January 14. Call 01785 356930 or email skillshare@staffordshire.gov.uk

Darren's having a ball after shedding weight

A slimline Darren Ball after losing six stones in as many months

How Aston Villa supporter Darren looked before his weight loss

TAKEAWAY fan Darren Ball ordered his last burger before going on a diet – and said: “You won’t be seeing me for a while.”

Six months later and more than six stones lighter, he still has not returned to his former favourite haunt, McDonald’s at Longford island in Cannock.

“I used to eat takeaways every day. I would order a Big Mac but also have a quarter pounder, a chicken sandwich and some chicken nuggets as well. It was never just one meal. I was spending £15-£20 a time.”

The 33-year-old from Hednesford finally decided to slim after catching sight of himself in the bathroom mirror. At just under 19st, it was a reality check and he joined his local Slimming World class.

“I’d got to the point where my weight was getting out of control.”

Swapped

Darren, who loads customers’ orders at Asda in Stafford, got off to a flying start and work colleagues have been amazed to see him shrinking before their eyes, although it has caused frustrations in the uniform department.

“I’ve had to change my uniform four times. I only swapped my trousers three or four weeks ago and now I need another pair.”

Darren, of Sweetbriar Way, Heath Hayes, has had the support of his parents and partner Claire in his endeavours and says he has also rediscovered the joys of exercise.

The former Cannock Chase High pupil who represented Cannock and Stafford at running and swam for Chase swimming club, now walks regularly on Cannock Chase and has taken up cycling. “I was stick thin when I was at school,” said Darren.

“My mum recently showed me a photo of myself from those days. It was unreal. It’s been amazing how far I’ve come,” he added.

BUSINESS bosses are being urged to invest in tomorrow's leaders. Staffordshire's Young Police Cadets have flourished in Cannock and Stafford since their launch in 2013. More will follow across Staffordshire in the coming months with the next unit due to open in Stoke-on-Trent in February.

Businesses are now being asked to make a contribution towards uniforms and equipment. Police & Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis says money used for frontline policing will not be redirected to fund the cadets service. Businesses are being invited to become patrons or sponsors to help fund uniforms and equipment for the cadets.

In return for their contribution, businesses are recognised through publicity, a framed certificate and other opportunities.

The cadet scheme was a key election pledge for Mr Ellis. It aims to strengthen links between the police and young people and promote good citizenship.

For more details on Cadets and the patronage scheme visit www.staffordshire-pcc.gov.uk/police-cadets

Quit call in Twitter row

POLICE and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis has hit back at calls for him to quit over a drink-driving name-and-shame campaign.

Celebrity lawyer Nick Freeman claims the Twitter campaign could potentially prejudice court cases.

He says Mr Ellis had shown a 'cavalier' attitude to the fundamental principle of innocent until proven guilty with his justification of the force's Christmas clampdown which saw motorists charged with drink or drug driving named on social media.

Mr Freeman, whose clients have included comedian Jimmy Carr, cricketer Freddie Flintoff and presenter Jeremy Clarkson, said the comments were prejudicial and called on the former county councillor to step down from his £75,000-a-year post.

Scant

He said: "Mr Ellis should carefully consider his position as he has again shown a scant understanding of the legal process. By his comments he is now presuming that everyone named by his officers are guilty as charged, even before they have appeared before a court. He is demonstrating a cavalier disregard for the presumption of innocence. His comments have potentially prejudiced every drink-driving case before it is heard."

In response, Mr Ellis said: "No-one will be named where there is any doubt."

He added anyone charged with an offence already had their name publicly available on court lists.

He said: "Policing isn't only about enforcement, it's also about stopping things from happening before they do, and this campaign is aimed at doing exactly that."

Musicians get in tune to remember drummer Jon

AN array of musical talent will perform in memory of late Charlatans drummer Jon Brookes next month.

Local bands will be performing at Darlaston All Active on February 8.

Among them will be Marquis Drive, once managed by Mr Brookes, Isolated Atoms, Junk Monkey, Little Liam and The Rimes.

Cannock Orpheus Male Voice Choir will perform a Charlatans hit. A guitar signed by EastEnders' actor Danny Dyer will be auctioned to raise funds for the Brain Tumour Charity and Wolverhampton artist Paul Pilgrim will auction off paintings of Mr Brookes.

Funeral

Mr Brookes, from Burntwood, died in August at Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham after battling a brain tumour. More than 200 mourners attended father-of-three Mr Brookes' funeral in August at Christ Church in Burntwood.

The gig has been organised by Adam Paget, a lifelong friend of Mr Brookes. Britain's Got Talent finalist Connie Talbot will also perform.

Mr Paget said: "We've had so many bands wanting to play. Tickets have been selling really well."

Couple's baby joy well worth the weight loss

The Websters with their daughter Isabelle

A COUPLE from Cannock are celebrating the birth of their first child - after the pair lost more than eight stones between them.

Dave Webster, aged 38, said of daughter Isabelle: "There is no way she would be here unless we had dieted."

At just eight weeks old, she is keeping the pair on track, as they rush around attending to her every need.

Sophie, a 37-year-old health and safety manager, was the first to start shedding the pounds a couple of years ago, losing 2st 2lbs. Six months later, traffic officer Dave set out to follow her example but had a bigger hill to climb. "Soph wasn't big by any stretch of the imagination but wanted to keep her weight better in check," he said.

Sophie and Dave Webster of Cannock before their weight loss

Shocked

"We hadn't been actively trying for a baby but we hadn't not and she felt she wanted to eat a healthier diet. With me, it was a different story. The weight had crept on and I was shocked to find I was on the wrong side of 20 stone."

"I used to get out of breath climbing the stairs. I didn't think I'd see my 40th birthday. I started a diet but I wasn't hopeful."

However Dave joined Sophie's Slimming World class at Hednesford on Thursdays and amazingly lost five-and-a-half stone in the first year.

The former military driver at RAF Stafford continued to slim down, reaching 13 stone 9lbs and since maintaining a weight of 14st.

The couple, of Sycamore Way, Huntington, had been married for 13 years before starting a family. They won the battle of the bulge by ditching convenience foods for home-cooked delights.

Healthy lifestyle leads to 100 years

Lillian Finikin with a card from The Queen as she turns 100 at School Court retirement home in Hednesford

A MINER'S daughter who has turned 100 years-old has put her long life down to a healthy lifestyle. Lillian Firkin, who lives at School Court retirement home in Hednesford, was born at Blackfords in Cannock, and was the only child of William and Ann Clarke.

She left school at 15 and worked at the Co-Op where she met and her future husband Jonny Finikin. They had one daughter, Jeannie, who is a barrister living in the New Forest area. Jonny died in 1963 and Lillian, a Jehovah's Witness, moved into School Court in September 2003. She said she owed her longevity to: "A lot of walking, a calm and healthy lifestyle and not smoking."

She celebrated with friends and residents and also received a congratulations card from the Queen.

Car repair plan debated

PLANS for a car repair business were expected to be given the go-ahead this week despite concerns over floodlighting and noise nuisance.

The business in Longford Road, Bridgtown would create four full-time jobs. The empty site was formerly used by a car sales company.

The applicant, Euro Autofits, is asking for permission to change its use from retail to industrial. The business caters for servicing and routine maintenance, including replacing parts such as exhausts, tyres, shock absorbers, batteries and brakes.

Batteries

One objector wrote: "My home is approximately 40ft from the existing building with an access road in between. Even now, with the building vacant, it gets busy and at times noisy."

Another letter, signed by a further 11 protesters, takes issue with the impact of floodlighting, traffic congestion and competition to existing businesses.

The unit would be open between 8.30am and 5.30pm on Monday to Friday, closing at 2.30pm on Saturday.

Officers have placed a condition on noise levels they say floodlights already exist so will have no significant effect on neighbouring properties.

The application was recommended for approval by the planning control committee yesterday (Wednesday).

CLUB NEWS

Lighting up loved one's life

CANNOCK FRIENDS OF ST GILES

THE 'Light up a Life' service held by St Giles Hospice and the Cannock Friends at St Luke's Church was as well attended as ever and the church was packed despite the rain.

People were greeted by members of the Cannock Friends group and Rotary and Soroptimist International clubs with orders of service and a candle to remember the life of a loved one.

The service was again enhanced by singers Bel Canto who, along with members of St Luke's choir, added their harmonies to the carols.

Following the service, led by Rev Peter Hart, Helen Kelihan, head of fundraising at St Giles, invited everyone to the Church Centre for refreshments provided by Cannock Friends and also to see the book of Remembrance where names of all those being remembered are recorded.

People who attend the service are always very generous with their contributions to the work of the hospice and this year proved to be no exception as £516 was donated on the evening.

Before the service, Cannock Friends presented a cheque for £1,000 to Helen, raised through donations, coffee mornings and other sales and events arranged by the group.

Take the plunge to use new equipment

BURNTWOOD SUB AQUA CLUB

BURNTWOOD Sub Aqua Club has been awarded £10,000 from Sport England. The money has been used to purchase eight new and complete sets of diving gear.

The equipment will be used exclusively by new members in assisting to overcome the initial costs that can deter people from starting this immersing activity; starting with an hour in the pool to learn the basics of diving and moving on towards internationally recognised diving qualifications.

Sport England gives these grants to help such clubs to provide greater access to sporting opportunities to a wider section of the local community. The club meets at 6pm on a Saturday at Burntwood Leisure Centre for private use of the pool facilities for training.

All those interested in taking the plunge can call 07966 516785, visit <http://www.burntwood-sac.org.uk>, email info@burntwood-sac.org.uk or find Burntwood Sub Aqua Club on Facebook.

Brenda's childhood trophy pride

BRENDA Garbett still treasures the trophy handed to her mother Lily to celebrate being the 1,000th child born at a hospital.

And she took it along to a party for her 80th birthday surrounded by friends and family.

Mrs Garbett was born at the old Bloxwich Hospital on December 30, 1933. Staff gave her mother a trophy to mark the occasion and their photograph was printed in the Express & Star.

The hospital was built in 1850 but became the Walsall Maternity and Child Welfare Institution in 1928.

Mrs Garbett's daughters Elaine, now 57, and Pam, 54 were born there but the site now offers mental health services for older people. Mrs Garbett also has another daughter Mandy, 51 and son Keith, 45, along with seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Now living on the Mossley estate, Bloxwich, Mrs Garbett, whose husband Raymond died of cancer five years ago, says she often talks of being the 1,000th baby born at the hospital.

Beautiful

The party at the Plough and Harrow in Uxbridge Street, Hednesford was organised by her family.

She said: "It was a lovely party and we had a beautiful time."

Mrs Garbett was a leather worker and a dinner lady at Mossley Primary School.

MEMORY LANE

The Hawthorns as it was back in 1913 which is unrecognisable from today's modern Premier League ground

Trap - Albion skipper Jesse Pennington

The article as it appeared in the Express &amp; Star back in 1913

Baggies' chairman Billy Bassett, who helped set up the trap 100 years ago

How match-fixing storm first rocked Baggies 100 years ago

IMMACULATELY dressed in a blue suit and overcoat with a velvet collar, the defendant took his seat.

The court sat in hushed silence as magistrates were told how a West Bromwich Albion star had agreed to 'throw' a match against Everton, in exchange for a substantial amount of money.

The accused, whose son was the head of an international betting syndicate, showed little emotion as the prosecution outlined its case.

But this was not the result of on-going investigation into match-fixing allegations in the modern game, rather it was the result of another betting scandal which rocked the sport almost exactly 100 years ago.

The court case, which opened at Smethwick Police Court in December, 1913, centred around a game between Albion and Everton, which had taken place on November 29 that year.

The Baggies, at that time riding high in the old First Division, were red-hot favourites to beat struggling Everton, who ultimately found themselves in a battle to beat the drop at the end of the season. But career criminal Pascoe Bioletti, whose son William was the head of a football betting business in Geneva at the time, had other ideas.

Bioletti, who also used the names Frederick Pater and Samuel Johnstone, approached Albion captain and England fullback Jesse Pennington, and offered him a total of £55 - or £5 for each player - if he could fix the match.

Pennington agreed. However, instead of stashing the cash, Pennington instead informed his chairman, Billy Bassett, and between them the pair set a trap for Bioletti.

For a master criminal, Bioletti does seem to have been remarkably naive.

He had first approached Pennington at his shop in Smethwick High Street - at the time, even top-level football was only a part-time profession.

And when Pennington asked Bioletti to put the agreement in writing, incredibly he agreed. The contract, written on the headed notepaper for Pennington's shop read: "I, Sam Johnstone, agree to present to Mr Jesse Pennington £55 on the termination of the match played at West Bromwich on November 29th, 1913, if the result is a draw or loss." He even put his address at the bottom.

Pennington took the agreement to Bassett, himself a former England international, and police were informed. By sheer coincidence, and without help of Pennington - or without any intentional help, anyway, Everton managed to hold Albion to a draw. At the end of the game, Pennington approached Bioletti, who was waiting for the score, and demanded his money.

Bioletti, in the presence of two police officers, handed over a bag of gold containing £55 - around £5,300 at today's prices - and asked Pennington to count the coins in the office.

Mr J S Sharpe, acting for the prosecution, told the court: "There is very little doubt that the defendant is the agent for a very big betting association which issues football coupons, and they have a desire through him or their agents, to actually control the play of various clubs in the district."

Bioletti, who had refused to reveal his real name to the court and insisted on being called Frederick Pater throughout the proceedings, was eventually jailed for five months, plus another six months for attempting to bribe Birmingham City's Frank Womack.

Parents lose their fight against academies plan

A Touch of glamour

At the Glamour Room are Sarah Willis, Tim Lees and Aidan Burley MP

A BEAUTICIAN who counts Berg-erac actor John Nettles and ex-Corona Street landlady Julie Goodyear among her former clients has opened a new salon in Cannock.

Sarah Willis, aged 40, credits her blossoming career to breaking her ankle, which led to six weeks off from a job as a nursery nurse.

She applied for a place on a three-year hair and beauty course at Stafford University and has never looked back. On graduating, she landed a job at Hoar Cross Hall and, three years on, has opened The Glamour Room. It is located next to The Groom Room in Hemlock Way, Hawks Green.

Sarah, who lives with her daughter in Teddesley Park, Penkridge, said: "If I hadn't broken my ankle, I'd probably still be at my old job."

She said she felt it was a natural next step after her time at Hoar Cross Hall, where Julie Goodyear was a regular customer, while John Nettles once popped in for a massage.

PUPILS returned to school at two failing Chase primaries – with parents having lost their battle against turning them into academies.

Norton Canes and Heath Hayes primary schools reopened after Christmas as sponsor-led academies. Parents had fought to stop the move but a legal challenge has now been dropped.

An action group was formed and protests were held in Cannock town centre.

But Pam Ferraby, secretary of the Parents' Action Group, whose 10-year-old son Benedict attends Heath Hayes Primary, said: "We tried to mount a legal challenge ourselves but it was going to cost too much so we couldn't."

Unveiled

"It is disappointing. As parents we did all we could. We will be keeping a close eye on the school from now on."

Plans to turn the two schools into academies were first unveiled in June after they were put into special measures following Ofsted reports that rated them 'inadequate'. Cannock Chase Council had consulted a barrister over the validity of a consultation into the two schools' planned changes which they claimed was 'fatally flawed'.

But they were advised they were unlikely to win an judicial review into the issue.

Deputy council leader Councillor Mike Holder said: "The outcome is not satisfactory and raises further questions but we did not want to leave the schools under any further uncertainty."

The DfE said there had been 'numerous opportunities for all councillors to contribute.'

Cross-fit sessions start

Sportsman loses life to cancer on Boxing Day

TRIBUTES have been paid to a popular sportsman from Hednesford who died shortly after being diagnosed with bowel cancer.

Alex Graham, who played in local football teams for more than 45 years and was also a keen golfer, died on Boxing Day.

Alex Graham - tributes

The 60-year-old, of Belt Road, had helped to set up Chase Strollers FC around 15 years ago and managed the veterans team which plays in the Staffordshire FA Veterans League.

The former Kingsmead High School pupil, who played as a sweeper, had also played for Calving Hill Youth Club FC, Littleton FC and the West Cannock Fives.

Mr Graham, who was born in Kirkconnel, Scotland, but moved to Hednesford when he was a year old, was also a member of Ingestre Park Golf Club in Stafford and had organised charity golf days for St Giles Hospice.

He had started working at Littleton Colliery as an electrician in the early 1970s and became a self-employed electrician in the mid-1980s.

Devastated

Pop Popovic, a 61-year-old father-of-three, from Stafford Road, Cannock, had known Mr Graham for 40 years. He said his death had left everyone devastated.

It has left a massive hole in the community," he said.

He said Mr Graham had found out he had bowel cancer several weeks before he died but kept the news quiet, only choosing to tell his sister Kathleen.

His funeral will take place at Stafford Crematorium tomorrow (Friday) at 4pm and people are being asked to make donations to the Bobby Moore Fund and Katharine House Hospice.

Coffee morning

NATURE lovers can warm up with a cuppa and raise money for charity. The Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is hosting a coffee morning at its Wolsley Bridge base tomorrow (Friday) from 10am to noon. Entry is £1, which includes a drink.

Chamber boss backs zero hours contracts

BUSINESS leader Chris Plant has backed the use of zero hours contracts. The director of Cannock Chase Chamber of Commerce said they were vital because they offered flexibility.

The Government is carrying out a consultation on the use of the contracts. Mr Plant said: "Zero hours contracts can be beneficial for students, older workers or those with caring duties who don't want to be constrained by a fixed contract. And they allow employers to experiment with new services or markets."

"We welcome the government's consultation as an opportunity to ensure best practice, but without jeopardising employment opportunities."

Keep career plans a secret, pals told MP

Mr McLoughlin as a miner

The transport secretary

IT'S not every day a working class lad becomes a Conservative MP. So when a miner turned Transport Secretary told pals in Cannock of his dreams to be a politician they told him to just keep it quiet.

Patrick McLoughlin, a former Cardinal Griffin School High School pupil, said he was inspired to become an MP after he was given a tour of the Commons by former South Staffordshire MP Patrick Cormack when he was 15.

But the announcement of his planned career path took his best friend by surprise.

He said: "I remember telling my best friend I'm going to be an MP. I'll always remember him saying 'if I was you I'd keep that secret.'"

The father-of-two, aged 56, also revealed how his mother and Margaret Thatcher simply 'chatted away like two fishwives' after his election success back in 1986.

Rules

About his path into politics, he said: "Whatever you think about politicians, and at the moment we aren't thought of very highly for various reasons, they do decide the kind of society we grow up in, the rules of the land, and they can help people."

"There's nothing more rewarding than when a Member of Parliament can help a constituent by cutting through the bureaucracy."

The Transport Secretary has said one of the main focuses of his role is the controversial HS2, as there has not been a new line north of London for 120 – something he says needs addressing.

He now wants all major cities outside of London to have 'the transport connections that enable them to compete in a global market', and is confident the line will be built despite opposition. Former Chief Whip Mr McLoughlin has also expressed his concern over the cost of rail travel, saying he feels commuters are suffering the costs of season tickets.

Shuttle bus call to help ex-prisoners

AN MP is calling for a shuttle bus to be introduced to Cannock and Wolverhampton so inmates leaving a prison can find their way home once they are released.

Prisoners at the £150m HMP Oakwood in Featherstone have twice evaded security to access its roof but it seems that once freed they finding it trickier to actually leave.

Nearby residents say they are being bothered for directions by groups of ex-cons who haven't a clue how to get home once they are set free.

Now South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson is pleading with prison bosses for the shuttle bus to be introduced.

Family

He said villagers did not want 'ex-cons roaming their streets looking for a bus stop' and will meet with prison bosses next month.

Mr Williamson said: "My understanding is HMP Oakwood is interested in bringing in a shuttle service, even at a cost to them."

"Most prisoners who are released get picked up by family and friends but some rely on public transport. What people living in the villages don't want is ex-cons roaming their streets looking for a bus stop."

"Another possibility would be for the bus route to

by Adam Thompson

make regular stops there. It makes sense that prisoners that have been released go to Wolverhampton or Cannock where there are better transport links than rural South Staffordshire."

Frank Beardmore, South Staffordshire councillor for Featherstone & Brinsford, said: "I find it hard to believe that the biggest prison in Britain doesn't have any system in place where prisoners know where they're going when released."

"Since HMP Oakwood opened I have had a number of people saying they've been stopped by prisoners who simply don't know where they are. They either ask for directions to Wolverhampton or Cannock."

G4S, which runs HMP Oakwood, insisted that inmates are not released in large groups and that measures were taken to ensure they didn't hang around the local area.

Car knocks down pensioner

A PENSIONER was taken to hospital with serious pelvic injuries after being knocked down by a car. Paramedics were called to Hednesford Road, Rugeley, at 5.30pm on New Year's Eve. An off-duty paramedic had come across the crash and stopped to help the man, believed to be in his 60s. He was taken to University Hospital North Staffordshire.

FOCUS ON HEDNESFORD

Unwanted presents are sought by charity

A CHARITY with a shop in Hednesford is appealing for donations of unwanted Christmas gifts.

Barnardo's hope to sell the items on to raise vital funds for its work with disadvantaged children and families.

The charity has devised a list of the top five 'most unwanted' Christmas gifts received in stores last year, namely scarves, woolly jumpers, toiletry gift sets, DVD and CD double-ups and household items like vases, tea sets and dressing tables.

Barnardo's director of retail and trading Gerard Cousins said: "By donating unwanted gifts, and other items to your local store, you can recycle the item and allow someone else to enjoy them whilst raising funds for a good cause."

To donate, visit the Barnardo's shop in Victoria Street, or call 01543 879131.

Forum is held at superstore

THE next Hednesford neighbourhood forum meeting will be held on Saturday (January 11) at the Tesco store, in Victoria Street.

Residents can voice concerns and speak with police and councillors from 11am.

Officers will also report on what they have been doing to solve previous matters.

On hunt for clues again after treasure trail is washed out

HUNDREDS of people had to be turned away from a treasure hunt in Hednesford because of the bad weather.

Trees came down, roads were closed and roof tiles blew off as heavy winds battered the West Midlands.

by Charlotte Lilley

But the strong gusts caused further misery for parents and children who had been looking forward to hunting for clues in Hednesford Park.

Organisers had planned for the quest to take place on Monday, on December 23 but had to postpone it until this weekend.

Pouring

Lynn Evans, chairman of the Friends of Hednesford Park, said: "This was going to be our first Christmas treasure hunt in the park but sadly we had to postpone it because of the terrible weather.

"The wind and rain has really battered parts of the country and we didn't want to put anyone in danger, plus it wouldn't have been much fun in the pouring rain.

"We have been eagerly watching the weather forecast waiting for a bright and dry day and we saw that on Saturday it will be clear.

"It has taken a few weeks to plan the treasure hunt so the questions and clues will all still be Christmas-based.

"A lot of people have been asking when we are doing it and we are expecting a few hundred people to come along."

A flood alert was issued for the Lower Tame River near Lichfield but Hednesford Town's New Year's Day match against AFC Telford went ahead after volunteers turned out to help drain the pitch at the New Buck's Head.

Miss Evans added: "Once the maps have been completed, everyone who takes part will be rewarded with a hot drink and chocolate in Hednesford Park Pavilion and there will be a raffle afterwards."

The treasure hunt will be held from 1pm to 3pm on Saturday (January 11). To help out, call 07896 239717.

Trade fears as bridge closed for rail work

Work starts on the footbridge on Station Road, Hednesford which will cause disruption for motorists until April

WORK has started on a bridge in Hednesford as part of the £30 million electrification of the Chase railway line.

The bridge in Station Road, was closed for three months on January 4. The project is likely to cost around £1.1 million with work set to be completed by April.

However, a motor dealer says uncertainty lies ahead for his future of his business. The bridge is used by hundreds of cars each day and passing trade is vital to Chase Car Sales, off Rugeley Road.

Owner Craig Tarr said closing off the road had led to customers and sales reps being unable to find his premises. He said: "We are just 10 seconds away from the bridge. It is worrying to think that cars may avoid the area all together. No thought has been put into this," said Mr Tarr, aged 44.

Modified

"No signs have been put up saying we're still open and, due to the diversion signs in place, those coming from Stafford can't even access us."

"We just want people to know that we are still open for business."

The bridge is just one of many that will be rebuilt or modified to allow for the electrification of the train line.

Demolition work has already started at the Broad Lane bridge in Bloxwich, but businesses there say trade has slumped by up to 25 per cent following the closure of Broad Lane, to accommodate the scheme.

The £3m work on the bridge started in November and is due to continue until the end of March.

A Network Rail spokesman said: "We demolished the old bridge over Christmas and we're now preparing to build a new one high enough to take traffic over the electric overhead wires."

Haven for wildlife to be created at church

VOLUNTEERS are being sought to get involved in weekly sessions to help build a wildlife haven in Hednesford.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is appealing for people to create a garden at the Church of our Lady of Lourdes in Uxbridge Street.

The trust will be creating daffodil and bluebell meadows as well as a new sensory garden after securing funding from the Big Lottery Fund's Awards for All programme.

Nature space officer Paul Hallam said: "The improvements to the church grounds are not only beneficial to local wildlife, but are something the whole community can enjoy and be proud of."

The four weekly sessions start on Tuesday at 10am. For details call 07854 710182 or email nature.space@staffs-wildlife.org.uk

Council office closed for day

THE chairman of Hednesford Town Council is reminding residents the office at Pye Green Community Centre in Bradbury Lane, will be closed on Monday (January 13).

Voice mail messages can be left on 01543 424872 and will be picked up the following day.

Parrys blazing the trail with luxury coach travel

AWARD-winning coach tour company Parrys International is all set for a bumper year in 2014, after customer power persuaded the Cheslyn Hay firm to continue for the next few years.

After 40 successful years Managing Director Dave Parry had announced his retirement and that the firm would close, but after a huge outcry from both customers, trade and hotel suppliers, he was persuaded to change his mind.

Now it's business as usual with a fantastic programme of coach holidays, short breaks and a full investment of more than £4 million in new, luxury Coaches.

Parrys International already have the reputation of providing the best touring coaches in the UK. This has been taken to a new level with in seat entertainment fitted to every Coach – the first touring fleet in the world to provide such a system.

Facilities

Complimentary headsets will be provided for all long haul tours and together with the other on-board facilities, they will provide the ultimate in luxury coach travel – the same as long haul aircraft.

Parrys operate quality UK Coach tours in association with big hotel names such as Hilton and Marriott.

Continental destinations include regular departures to Italy, Austria, Spain and Germany all with comfortable overnight stops each way and exciting short breaks to Paris, the Dutch bulbfields, Bruges and Ireland.

Coach travel can be so rewarding with all details taken care of by a friendly and professional crew, who can show you the very best of Britain and Europe in comfort and above all – complete safety!

Coach holidays are unique and represent great value for money with interesting itineraries, first class hotels and the ultimate in spacious, air-conditioned coach travel.

Parrys has just released its 2014 holiday

Just one of Parrys exclusive luxury coaches which can take you in comfort and style all over the UK and Europe brochure packed with new and favourite tours and popular weekends.

Once again the company will be main team sponsors of Wolverhampton speedway for a record 14th Year. This Sunday, January 12, Parrys International opens to the public with their annual open day.

There will be trade exhibitors, coaches on display, special offers and lots of interesting items including the management and a star rider from Wolverhampton speedway. It will be open from 10am to 3pm.

It all takes place at the Cheslyn Hay site, Landywood Green, off Landywood Lane near Landywood Railway Station. Other Coach firms have tried to copy or follow Parrys International but the Company remains one of the most respected coach tour operators in the United Kingdom and will remain so for some years to come.

£300k work on waterways

HISTORIC waterways across Staffordshire are set to be restored as part of a £300,000 transformation.

The project includes essential winter maintenance such as the repairing of canal walls, locks and bridges and the installation of new lock gates.

The Canal and River Trust is investing the money throughout the county.

It forms part of the trust's annual programme of restoration and repairs to historic waterways across England and Wales.

Engineers and skilled workmen will drain out sections of canals, remove old lock gates and carefully restore historic walls between now and March.

Works will include refitting gates and repairing 200-year-old brickwork at a number of locks in Stoke.

Gates will also be repaired at Bagnall Lock in Alrewas near Lichfield, while brickwork will be regouted to prevent leaks at Trentham, Etruria and Bedford Street, all close to Stoke.

Scenic

Elsewhere, workers will refit lock gates at Branston Lock near Burton and carry out a number of repairs in Meaford near Stone.

Darren Green, Canal and River Trust waterways manager, said: "Staffordshire's waterways are some of the most scenic and popular in the country but there's quite a lot of work needed to look after them."

"Our teams are out in all weathers and over the next few months our engineers and heritage experts will be braving the cold to give the canals the care and attention they deserve.

"It's painstaking, specialised work but the canals are an important part of the region's heritage so it's right that we devote some time and craftsmanship to help protect them for future generations."

The Canal and River Trust carries out a year-round programme of works to conserve and repair the fragile infrastructure of the canals and rivers in its care.

Teams of experts complete essential maintenance across 2,000 miles of canals and rivers so they can be enjoyed by over 33,000 boats and 10 million towpath visitors each year.

NEWS

Rescue centres expect an influx of unwanted pets

ANIMAL sanctuaries across Staffordshire and the Black Country are bracing themselves for an influx of abandoned pets after the festive period – with some saying this has already been the worst year yet.

Managers say they usually see a trend of owners abandoning new pets after buying them as Christmas presents, because they do not realise the commitment involved.

At The Cats Whiskers Rescue Centre in Great Wyrley, manager Malcolm Hayes says this festive season has been their worst ever.

He said: "We are only in the first week of January but already we are full to capacity with cats that need rehoming."

"The situation is the worst I've ever experienced in 40 years."

Attention

"We have 70 cats on our books because people have bought them as presents without realising the care and attention they need."

"They get dumped and left on our doorstep. It is really upsetting."

"I would encourage people thinking about re-homing a pet to consider whether they can handle the responsibility and get advice first."

Toni Baxendale works at Rosedene Dog Rescue in Walsall and said the number of dogs taken into the centre was worrying.

She said: "At the minute we have 35 dogs in our care that are looking for their forever homes and that is worrying enough, but we expect this number to rise significantly over the next couple of months as puppies turn into full grown dogs."

From left, Toni Baxendale, of Walsall, with 'Scooby', and Kirsty Bradley, of Tipton, with 'Noodle', at Rosedene Boarding and Rescue Centre, Walsall

"A dog is for life – not just for Christmas. I know it's an old saying but it couldn't be more true. So many people buy dogs before reading up on the breed."

"It makes me really angry because they end up dumping them or returning them and the dogs don't know what is going on."

The situation is similar at Birmingham Dogs Home's Sunnyside Centre near Wolverhampton. Assistant manager Tina Leedham, who works at the site in Dark Lane, Coven, said there has been an increase in the number of dogs being abandoned just before Christmas, which they were still trying to rehome.

She said: "We saw a huge increase in the number of dogs being abandoned just before Christmas and we hope we can find loving homes for them."

What's On!

Red Lion will host Daredevils band

THE Red Lion Folk Club in Birmingham will be hosting Black Country musicians The Bushbury Mountain Daredevils along with Stourbridge blues singer Sunjay Brayne on January 15. Brayne has just come from a tour supporting Steeleye Span and recently released an album of him playing live.

The club in Vicarage Road, Kings Heath meets on Wednesdays at 7.15pm. Northern singer and raconteur Jez Lowe will also be appearing there on January 22.

For more information visit www.redlionfolkclub.co.uk.

A NEW venture is coming to the Newhampton Arts Centre in Wolverhampton.

Fiddle player Faye Brookes is staging the Folk Lounge at the Dunkley Street venue in Whitmore Reans, which is a platform to give young musicians exposure.

The event is on January 25 from 7.30pm and tickets are £5. For more information contact 01902 572090.

Lowings back for home ground gig

STOURBRIDGE group Kim Lowings and the Greenwood will be at The Woodman Folk Club at the Ashwood Marina, Ashwood Lower Lane, Kingswinford on January 24. The group is a collective of local musicians fronted by singer Lowings. Visit www.woodmanfolk.co.uk.

Magical snowman returns to captivate new generations

The show at the Repertory Theatre will be filled with all manner of familiar and wonderfully colourful characters

THE magic of Raymond Briggs' frosty friend The Snowman has been enthralling young and old alike for more than three decades and now The Birmingham Repertory Theatre is bringing him to life once again.

The stage show, based upon the book by Briggs, will run at the venue until Saturday January 18.

The Snowman tells the magical story of a young boy's adventures when his snowman miraculously comes to life on Christmas Eve.

A glittering host of international snowmen and snow women will be joined onstage by colourful characters including dancing penguins, magical reindeer, a beautiful snow princess and her abominable beau Jack Frost and Father Christmas himself.

The Snowman first appeared as a beautifully illustrated picture book by Raymond Briggs in 1978.

Performance Times: 11am, 3pm and 7pm on Saturday 11 and 18; 2pm and 7pm on Friday 10, Tuesday 14, Wednesday 15, Thursday 16 and Friday 17; 3pm Friday 17.

There will also be backstage tours on Saturdays 11 and 18 at 11am. They cost £5 (£3 concessions). Audio described performance and Touch Tours run on Sunday 12 3pm. Touch Tour starts at 1.30pm.

The shows are suitable for children aged four and upwards.

Tickets are £12.50 - £35 and for more information contact the box office on 0121 236 4455.

Online booking: birmingham-rep.co.uk.

Music from both sides of Atlantic

THE famous Transatlantic Sessions featuring some of the biggest names from the world of folk and acoustic music is coming to Birmingham next month.

Musicians Aly Bain and Jerry Douglas have put together another collection of world renowned musicians from both sides of the pond including Kris Drever, Shawn Colvin and Mike McGoldrick among many others.

The show at Symphony Hall is on Thursday February 6 from 7.30pm. Tickets are £27.50 plus booking fee and for more information visit www.thsh.co.uk.

Folk founders in concert as a duo

FOUNDER members of award-winning group Bellowhead, Spiers & Boden, will be playing as a duo at Wolverhampton's Civic Hall on March 18.

Double BBC Folk award winners for best duo Jon Boden and John Spiers will be coming to the venue on the back of Bellowhead's 10th anniversary bash.

Tickets are £16.50 including booking fee and for more information visit www.wolvescivic.co.uk.

Shane Richie

Reflex

BBC1, 6.15pm

In EastEnders this week, Alfie begins planning a trip to Australia. Is it because he's already fed up of being reunited with Kat – or did Shane Richie need a break so he could host this promising new game show? Yes, the actor is getting back to his light entertainment roots with Reflex, which is the name suggests, is all about reaction times. Each week, two teams of three family members will be tested in a series of challenges designed to find out who has the speediest reflexes. And that could involve anything from being fired into the air to responding to explosions.

BBC2, 8pm
 Adventurer Simon Reeve is getting out and about again. He's not long back from his jaunt to the other side of the world after his exploration of Australia, but you can't keep this man on terra firma for too long, so this time he's jetting off to Africa where he's looking into the stories behind our favourite beverage – tea. He's in the Kenyan coastal city of Mombasa, where most of the leaves for tea bags are bought at auction, before moving on through eastern Africa to meet some of the millions of people who pick, pack and transport it.

We're all prone to make New Year resolutions – eating healthily, walking more and shedding a few pounds to name a few. Many of those intentions involve lifestyle decisions and seizing the opportunity for change. A recent Radio 4 broadcast explored the view of 'Your whole life is lived through your teeth'. The concept for many is true and none more so for the effervescent Ann Skitt of Willenhall, who made a New Year resolution to ditch her old, troublesome dentures and get a brand new smile.

Is this the right time for you to do the same?

ANN Skitt retrieves her bike from the garage, deftly fixes a slipped chain, and is ready "to go anywhere."

By her own confession it's an antique with a capacious, black leather-cloth saddlebag (no longer manufactured) and just three Sturmey-Archer gears. For nearly 20 years it's been a faithful companion and her primary source of transport. Her enthusiasm to get on the saddle belies her years. "I don't drive, but cycle everywhere I can," she says.

A young-at-heart 74-year-old, she oozes charisma and charm, still goes to the gym "when she needs to shed a few pounds" and is the life and soul of the party at her local Young At Heart Club where she is a volunteer worker.

"I retired at 60, but I always have to be doing something. The club has some elderly people who never really see anyone from week to week and I love helping. We do lunches and have a game of bingo and a laugh," she adds.

She admits to constantly making choices to live life to the limit and indulging herself as popular hairdressers' model at Wolverhampton's award-winning Ultimate Hairdressing salon whenever she fancies a new look.

"I love meeting the students and they treat me lovely," she says.

It's hard to imagine that his retired assembly worker, who completed 45 years' service at Willenhall's famous Josiah Parkes & Sons lock manufacturers, could ever be knocked back. But failing teeth "became an embarrassment," she recalls.

Plucked up the courage

"My remaining bottom teeth were terribly discoloured and my partial lower denture was unstable. You could never eat anything like nuts and I was always so conscious of the way they looked. If I cooked lamb chops or a steak I'd struggle to eat it – it would take me ages, but I can eat anything now," she says with a smile.

Ann called time on her long-standing dental problems after reading an article in her local newspaper about Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng) GDC108353 and his work as principal at the Denture Clinic in North Street, Dudley.

"I had a couple of articles and kept them for nearly a year before I plucked up the courage to see Steve.

I knew exactly what I wanted and was happy to put up with a bit of discomfort to get there," she says.

With four implants in her upper and four in the lower jaw to secure implant-retained over-dentures, Ann now has a perfect smile and functional teeth.

"I love my teeth and they have given me so much more confidence. You don't realise how having bad teeth affect until you have treatment like this and you get the confidence back. The whole shape of my mouth has changed.

"I told Steve I didn't want teeth like Cilla Black or Stacey Solomon, they would not look good on someone my age," she adds.

Husband Brian is full of praise – "It's taken years off her and the teeth are just perfect for her."

Her teeth were hand-crafted on the premises at the Denture Clinic and implant surgery was carried out by Jonathon Pugh BDS MSc (Implant Dentistry), principal of Total Implant Solutions in Tettenhall Road, Wolverhampton.

A long-standing working relationship between Jon and Steve has fused two dental disciplines which continues to enjoy excellent clinical outcomes.

"Both Steve and Jon were lovely with me. I've told all my friends they need to see them too," says Ann.

Horror sequel, starring Donnie Wahlberg, Shawnee Smith, Tobin Bell, Franky G, Glenn Plummer, Dina Meyer, Emmanuelle Vaugier and Beverley Mitchell. (2005)

Pick of the Week

Latest case is far from elementary for Holmes

Take a deep breath Sherlock fans and prepare for the end. Yes, it's the final episode of the current run, and considering the reaction to the last series' finale, it's anyone's guess how millions of fans will cope.

There's a good bet Sherlock Holmes (Benedict Cumberbatch) won't be killed off – again, but how safe is John Watson (Martin Freeman)?

Has the sleuth finally met his match as he clashes with Charles Augustus Magnusson (Lars Mikkelsen), aka the Napoleon of blackmail?

He's a man who knows the personal weakness of every person of importance in the Western world, and Holmes loathes him for his most unscrupulous line of criminal business.

As ever, Steven Moffat has penned what promises to be a cracking instalment, and while we have no clue as to whether a fourth series will see the light of day, we can but hope Moffat and co-creator Mark Gatiss work their magic with the many other

Martin Freeman had a great time making the new series, especially during the first read through.

"It was good – it had a kind of familiarity about it, we had new people joining which was lovely," he explains. "Given that it was our third time, or fourth including the pilot, it just feels nice and familiar. It's always exciting because the scripts are so good."

Two years after he witnessed his best friend's death, it was inevitable John Watson would take time to heal before he could move on.

"His best friend had died horribly in front of him, which took a long time to get over, but the way that his life has moved on is that he has fallen in love with Mary," explains Freeman.

(Mary is played by Martin's real-life partner Amanda Abbington in case you missed their charming appearance together on The One Show before Christmas).

"He is leading a functional, normalish life really which doesn't have the highs and lows of his life with Sherlock but is certainly a bit more steady. But there is a sadness with John which will always be with him when you lose someone that you love – he is slightly dulled by life."

The last series was topped and tailed by a couple of standout episodes. Some fans think A Scandal in Belgravia was the best episode to date, while others think The Reichenbach Falls takes some beating.

But what is Freeman's favourite episode?

"I have to say the ones that we have just filmed have been brilliant," he enthuses. "Before that, probably Reichenbach was my favourite one to do because when we read it I was really, really excited and I thought the finished product was amazing. It was one of the best things that I've ever done and am likely to do for a while."

With good support from Gatiss, Una Stubbs, Louise Brealey, and Rupert Graves, this should either leave you amazed, and possibly a bit miffed if it's another cliffhanger.

Benedict Cumberbatch stars in Sherlock, Sunday, BBC1, 8.30pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Go Hard or Go Home Channel 5, 8pm

It's a brand new year, and all that turkey is still sitting heavy (according to the weighing scales at least), so it's little wonder our attention is turning towards getting fit again. And if you needed any more motivation, look no further than this four-part series. It sees ordinary members of the public taking part in some of the world's most extreme endurance races, with only 12 weeks to train. This is the brainchild of Hannah White, who's sailed the Atlantic three times solo and is a competitive long-distance cyclist, mountain biker and runner. In this first episode, she's training up four doctors before they face The Bonebreaker, a 127-mile bike race that runs through the high peaks of the Pyrenees, crossing the Franco-Spanish border twice.

Dave: Loan Ranger Channel 4, 10pm

Dave Fishwick has already shown that he's got clout when it comes to matters of money, after successfully fighting the regulators to open his own small 'depository' in the Bank of Dave series. But he's still not satisfied because since opening his bank, he's seen first-hand how the poorest in society can become saddled with unthinkable amounts of debt after borrowing money from a new breed of moneylenders – payday loan companies. So Dave's on a new mission to help these people out, and tests out a selection of high-risk loans for people who have got into payday loan problems, offering them a preferable rate of interest in an attempt to get them back on track.

TUESDAY

The Taste Channel 4, 9pm

Just when you thought every possible culinary show format had been exhausted, along comes another one to shake the genre up a little bit. Last week, viewers saw TV cook Nigella Lawson, food maverick Anthony Bourdain and chef Ludo Lefebvre hand-pick the contestants they felt had the potential to win a battle of the taste buds – their challenge each week is to create the most flavoursome recipe they can, with help from their famous mentors. This week, Richard Corrigan also joins in the fun by setting the first task – a prawn cocktail.

Paul O'Grady's Animal Orphans ITV, 9pm

Paul O'Grady's not afraid to admit he's a big old softie. So it's only fitting that he'd be asked to present this three-part series in which he meets animals that have been orphaned in the wild in South Africa and Zambia. Our host learns that many of these animals – lions, cheetahs, hippos, elephants, baboons, and rhinos, among others – are in fact orphaned because of humans; either because their parents have been poached and killed, or their natural habitat has been destroyed. First, Paul visits SANCCOB, a sanctuary which looks after seabirds.

Piers Morgan's Life Stories: Neil Morrissey, Friday, ITV, 9pm

WEDNESDAY

The Restoration Man Channel 4, 8pm

One thing's for certain; George Clarke could never complain of being bored in his job. The architect gets to meet people from all walks of life for this telly gem – which would be interesting enough – and takes a nosy into their renovation plans, often rolling back his sleeves and getting in on the action himself. This week, he meets fellow architect Neil Worrell and his partner Jackie Robinson, who are making a rather big commitment. Never having lived together before, they're now going to cement their relationship by purchasing an unused church in the picturesque fishing town of Brixham in Devon.

Finding Mum and Dad Channel 4, 10pm

When many people think about adoption, they probably imagine taking home a new baby, who will never have known any other parents. But the reality is that many of the children in most need of a family are older, and that can bring with it a new set of challenges. In this fascinating documentary, we're introduced to Connor and Daniel, who as sibling boys aged six and four are already classed as 'hard to place.' In the past, that may have suggested they were destined to spend their lives in the system, but the authorities are exploring new ways to find children the stable homes they need. Filmed over the course of 12 months, this programme goes behind the scenes of an innovative new scheme designed to find potential mums and dads.

THURSDAY Hidden Kingdoms BBC1, 8pm

With the new year comes a wonderful new documentary from the BBC. The list of natural history programmes over the past few years is staggering, especially considering the quality of them. Three-part series Hidden Kingdoms is the latest and reveals the survival techniques employed by some of the animal kingdom's smallest creatures. This week, we observe the grasshopper mouse of North America's Sonoran desert. Despite its stature, it is capable of disarming scorpions twice its size, and its power and athleticism allow it to avoid rattlesnakes and tarantulas.

FRIDAY Piers Morgan's Life Stories: Neil Morrissey ITV, 9pm

The actor most associated with his comic role as Tony in Men Behaving Badly talks openly for the first time about his infamous affair with Amanda Holden. He reflects on being taken into care when he was just 10 years old and reveals how Mel Gibson was happy for him to pretend to be his brother when they became drinking pals.

A workhorse not a 4x4 posing Chelsea tractor

with Graham Breeze

IF YOU are one of those looking to pose outside the school gate in a gleaming 4X4 the Land Rover Defender is not for you.

Because the defender is no show pony. In fact it's quite the opposite – the finest 4x4 workhorse you are likely to encounter.

There's very little finery about this model. In fact apart from a few cosmetic makeovers the Defender is just as it was decades ago when I cut my teeth as a budding driver on the farm tracks and fields near my home.

And that's been the strength of this British icon so I have to question why Land Rover are trying to strengthen its appeal with gimmicks such as seat design and sound systems.

The defender was born to be a workhorse and while I can understand the desire to personalise your vehicle with the contrasting roof colours that are now available I see no need for anything else.

Customers seeking a higher level of specification can now enhance their vehicle with three additional options and a choice of two new exterior body colours, Barolo Black and Havana.

Smart new, contrast roof colours can now be chosen against the majority of the Defender paint palette. In addition to the standard Fuji

If you want to impress at the school gates this is not for you

White, customers can now opt for Santorini Black, Indus Silver, Orkney Grey or Firenze Red.

The Firenze Red can be chosen with the Santorini Black roof and the Baltic Blue with Indus Silver or simply retain their body colour.

Premium part leather seats which contour your body are available to the driver and front seat passenger, sporting the Land Rover logo on the backrest. But it's the EU5 2.2-litre diesel engine, which replaced the EU4 2.4-litre diesel in 2012, matching it for power, torque and fuel consumption that really counts when it comes to performance.

The engine produces 122PS@3,500rpm and torque of 360Nm@2,000rpm, giving a 0-60mph time of 14.7 seconds and a top speed of 90mph. CO2 emissions on the combined cycle are 266g/km. The GFT MT 82 six-speed gearbox has an excellent ratio spread, high top gear for cruising and enhanced low-speed crawl capability.

The lower first gear offers low crawl speed making towing on-road and off-road much easier. The low-down engine torque also helps in-gear acceleration and the tall sixth gear ensures excellent real-world cruising, refinement and fuel economy. Land Rover has tweaked the dash and improved seating over the years but you could never describe the Defender as comfortable. It's an extremely hard drive, you still need "Popeye" size muscles when parking while front seats seem too close to the doors leaving little space for the driver's right arm yet there is a vast space between driver and passenger.

If you want to cross a desert, climb a mountain or negotiate difficult farmland the Defender is for you. If you want to pose and impress at the wheel of a 4X4 look elsewhere.

Winter tyres have a different rubber compound and tread pattern to summer tyres to improve road grip, braking distance and traction in cold, wet and wintry conditions

Winter tyre sales up on 2012

SALES of cold weather tyres have seen another consecutive annual increase despite the recent mild autumn, according to UK tyre fitting and supply specialist Hometyre.

Hometyre, which covers Shropshire, the West Midlands and 20 other geographic areas of the UK, says its sales of winter tyres are up by 25 per cent on this time last year. Richard Woodward, operator for Hometyre West Midlands, said: "We've noticed that motorists are planning ahead and preparing for a cold winter. Forecasters have warned of a potentially severe winter and sales have been steadily increasing since October. Last year many motorists were caught out when stocks sold out after heavy snow and ice caused a last minute scramble for cold weather tyres.

"All suppliers increased their stock levels this year to meet another expected rise in demand, but even taking that into account, stocks have been depleting quickly."

A run of harsh UK winters since 2010 has led to a year-on-year increase in demand for cold weather tyres as motorists become more aware of the safety benefits of switching to them for 5-6 months of the year.

Winter tyres not only make driving safer in snow and ice, their different construction and tread pattern means they perform better in cold weather overall by improving braking distances, road grip and traction in temperatures of 7C and below. They can still be driven in temperatures up to 20C.

Mr Woodward said that if drivers did not wish to make the switch, they should still prepare for the cold months ahead by regularly checking that their existing tyres are in good condition with at least a tread depth of 3mm. "Although the legal tread depth limit is just 1.6mm, to ensure adequate grip in wet and wintry conditions, it's advisable that tyres be run to an absolute minimum depth of 3mm during the winter," he said.

EcoSport is another first rate car from Ford stable

If you've been looking for a mini SUV recently you may have noticed the absence of Ford representation in what's become a rapidly growing market sector.

The Blue Oval has finally fixed this omission with the EcoSport, a car boasting familiar Ford driving and design characteristics plus a trio of engines promising to be kind on your wallet.

Up front you've got the choice of Ford's award-winning three-cylinder, 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol motor, a conventional 1.5-litre petrol and frugal 1.5-litre, four-pot diesel unit.

Riding more than a little higher than a Fiesta, the EcoSport offers drivers a commanding view of the road. Despite its 'compact' tag, Ford's mini SUV's cabin is surprisingly spacious, and there's enough room for four adults, or more importantly a growing family.

What you can see and touch is of a good standard, and the controls and displays will be familiar to existing Ford owners. Also pleasing is Ford's generosity when it comes to standard equipment.

Titanium

Focusing initially on high-grade Titanium spec, the EcoSport lacks very little in real terms thanks to the inclusion of keyless ignition, alloy wheels, air-con, decent audio and plush upholstery.

Open your wallet a little wider and you can add leather trim, rain sensing wipers, cruise control and Ford's feature-rich multimedia system complete with mobile phone connectivity. Showroom appeal is all very well, fortunately the EcoSport also makes a convincing case on the road.

While not built for outright speed the car boasts a well-sorted ride and weighty steering, which should instil plenty of confidence when on the move.

Much work has been done by Ford's engineers to tailor the EcoSport to the demands of European roads and its drivers. The bottom line is that a mini SUV drives much like any current small Ford, which should be enough to give its rivals something to think about.

In 1.0-litre EcoBoost trim, the car is best suited to relaxed urban motoring and you'll soon be jealous of the extra torque and smoothness of the diesel motor.

The EcoBoost petrol-powered car might be quicker in a straight line but the diesel's welcome extra slug of torque might be a deal-breaker for some.

The five-speed manual gearshift is slick, while the added flexibility of the diesel allows you to stretch the EcoSport's legs on long journeys. Motorway cruising is a doddle plus you'll need fewer downchanges when attacking hilly terrain. It's yet another first-rate motor from Ford.

Ford's EcoSport may have a 'compact' tag but it is surprisingly spacious

There are bash-proof plastics in the cabin but there's a touch of good standard

Motoring

All-electric city car prices are now confirmed by Volkswagen

The Volkswagen e-Up city car. With an on-the-road price of £19,250, it is capable of 81mph

VOLKSWAGEN has confirmed UK pricing for the all-electric e-Up city car, with deliveries expected by the end of January 2014.

After accounting for the £5,000 government grant towards plug-in electric vehicles, the e-Up will cost from £19,250 on the road, which is more than double the price tag of a mid-range petrol-powered Up.

The car, which is capable of 81mph thanks to an 81bhp electric motor, can theoretically achieve more than 90 miles on a single charge, although owners are more likely to get around 70 with careful use.

Circuit

Its performance exceeds that of the petrol Up, though, with a 0-62mph time of 12.4 seconds and, crucially, a 0-30mph time of around four seconds.

A DC fast-charging circuit will be supplied as standard, enabling the e-Up to charge from flat to 80 per cent in 30 minutes, but a conventional three-pin wall charger will also be offered as an option.

The e-Up's extra equipment includes a heated windscreen, DAB digital radio with six-speaker Sound Pack, City Emergency Braking system, rear parking sensors and an electronic climate control system.

Octavia vRS claims award for 'Everyday Car of Year'

The Skoda Octavia vRS has been voted 'Best Everyday Car of the Year' by lifestyle magazine FHM

THE Skoda Octavia vRS has been awarded the 'Best Everyday Car of the Year' gong by a leading men's lifestyle magazine.

Judges on FHM's panel were impressed by the hot Octavia's interior space, family-friendly practicality, impressive performance and striking style. Its price also struck a chord, with an entry figure of £22,990 on the road, putting it well below less spacious alternatives.

Chris Horrell, product marketing manager for Skoda UK said: "We are thrilled that the Octavia vRS hatch has been honoured in the FHM Car Awards.

"The sporty model offers the perfect solution for style-conscious drivers who require superior power delivery as well as all-round everyday practicality.

Live action is promised at the Performance Car Show in Birmingham

The biggest motorsport show in Europe at NEC

BRITAIN'S Best Driver's Cars will take to the Live Action Arena at the Performance Car Show, running alongside Autosport International at Birmingham's NEC from Friday until Monday.

Led by supercars such as the 468bhp Porsche 911 GT3 and the Aston Martin V12 Vantage S, ten cars will parade through the 5,000-seat Live Action Arena. Also assembling in the arena will be the Mercedes-Benz A 45 AMG, featuring the most powerful four-cylinder engine in production, as well as the Toyota GT86, Jaguar F-Type S, Porsche Cayman S and Ford Fiesta ST Mountune.

Ariel, Caterham and Radical will showcase track cars that have been taken to the next level with the Atom 3.5 SC, the 311bhp supercharged Seven 620R and Radical's RXC.

The Performance Car Show is part of Autosport International, Europe's biggest motorsport show, hosting motorsport legends such as John Surtees, the only person to have claimed world championship titles of both two and four wheels, former Formula 1 driver and Sky Sports F1 presenter Martin Brundle and newly crowned BTCC champion Andrew Jordan.

Tickets are now on sale on 0800 581 1419 or www.performancecarshow.com

December 14, 1948

December 12, 2013.

The sadness we all feel on the loss of you Jem, cannot be put into words, you didn't deserve to go the way you did but you left this world a lot more peacefully knowing we were beside you, with comforting words willing you to go see yours and our beloved Brothers.

You all have left a hole that cannot be filled, but we all have the most amazing memories locked in our hearts.

We shared an everlasting bond that parting cannot break.

We will all meet again one day.

No regrets Jem you did it your way.

Your loving Family.

in memoriam

SMITH

Gillian Kaye

January 10, 2008

Softly leaves in memory fall, gently I gather and treasure them all, unseen, unheard, you are always near, so missed, so loved, so very dear.

Loving Husband Trevor and all the Family.

WOOD

Kenneth

One year January 7.

My heart still fills with sadness and secret tears still flow, what it meant to lose you no one will ever know.

Close to our hearts you will always stay, loved and remembered every day.

Loving Wife Millie, Son Paul and Benny the dog.

BAKEWELL

Jem

The Family of Jem would like to extend heartfelt thanks to everyone who attended Jem's Funeral and for all the love, kindness and support shown at this difficult time.

The last 3 months of Jem's life were spent at Conifers Nursing Home, Great Wyrley, to whom we will be eternally grateful for the care and devotion shown to Jem and our Family.

All donations gratefully received for Conifers.

A special thank you to all District Nurses especially Gail, to Julie Thiesinger, St Giles' Nurse for her care and compassion shown not only to Jem but to our Family.

Thank you also to Julie and Bob at The Talbot Inn, for the excellent way they accommodated so many Friends and Family and for the lovely food they served.

Our gratitude to Ralph at A.J. Sellmans for the lovely Service and for their compassion and professionalism.

PREECE

Donald

The Family of Don Preece would like to thank everyone who attended Don's Funeral at St. Luke's Church and for the hundreds of cards and letters received at home.

Pat, Ian and Gill would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to all those who have so generously supported them during the past year and have donated a total of £1,040.00 in loving memory of Don.

This money has been divided between Katharine House Hospice, £705.00 and Brain Tumour Research £335.00.

These donations have been a tribute to a kind and special man who will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him.

WHITEHOUSE

Eric

Passed away December 6th. Wife Mavis and Family would like to thank every one who attended Eric's Funeral. Floral tributes, sympathy cards and words of comfort.

Donations for MacMillan Nurse Cancer Support, totalling £480.

Thank you all.

NOW RECRUITING

A great new home for us. A great new career for you.

Something big is coming to town. Somewhere you'll feel right at home, with 30,500 sq ft of fantastic home furnishings including Towels, Bedding, Fabrics, Curtains, Furniture and Kitchenware to name but a few. Dunelm is the largest, specialist retailer of household textiles and linens in the UK. We are rapidly expanding and are now opening our brand new store in Cannock

Part-time positions available

We have part-time positions available in all of our departments including Bedding, Curtains, Cookshop, Bathroom, Dining and many more. Dunelm has been voted the UK's 3rd favourite place to shop. If you can help us build our success still further, we can promise you a terrific future with our team. As a people person, you will have the confidence to approach customers and advise on products available in the store. You are friendly, efficient and enjoy working with the public. Ensuring your display systems are sufficiently stocked and tidy, you will need to be flexible in your working hours and must be able to work at least one weekend day. You will be working as part of a large team and full training will be provided.

Staffordshire County Council

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED) ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991 CANNOCK ROAD, CANNOCK DIVISION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in that length of Cannock Road, Cannock between its junctions with Huntington Terrace Road and Sankey Road unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works; or unless the vehicle requires access to premises on the length of road or is being used for police, fire brigade or ambulance purposes. Pedestrian access will be maintained.

The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via Huntington Terrace Road, Arthur Street, Cannock Road and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON 27 JANUARY 2014 AND WILL RUN BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 9AM AND 5PM, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY 31 JANUARY 2014.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the carriageway resurfacing works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

John Tradewell, Director of Democracy, Law and Transformation No. 1 Staffordshire Place, Tipping Street, Stafford, ST16 2LP

Date: 09 January 2014

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED) ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991 PUBLIC FOOTPATH NO. 12, RUGLEY TOWN TEMPORARY CLOSURE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Staffordshire County Council, on 7 January 2014, made an Order the effect of which is to prohibit any pedestrian from proceeding along that length of Public Footpath No. 12 Rugley Town, which runs from its junction with Public Footpath No. 12 Rugley Town, in a generally south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately 455 metres to its junction with Public Footpath No. 11 Rugley Town. The closure is required because of the likelihood of danger to the public using the path due to allowance of works to be undertaken adjacent to Sitting Mill Pumping Station, Rugley by South Staffs Water. An alternative route is available via the path network to the west of Public Footpath No. 12, Rugley Town.

A plan will be displayed showing the length of public footpath to be closed and unaffected rights of way in the area.

This Order will come into operation on 13 January 2014 and will remain in force for a period of six months or until the risk of danger to the public is considered to be over, whichever is the earlier. If necessary, after six months, the Order may be extended for a further period with the approval of the Secretary of State.

John Tradewell, Director of Law & Governance No. 1 Staffordshire Place, Stafford, ST16 2LH

Where a series of advertisements is booked the Company's liability shall not in any circumstances exceed the value of the first advertisement in the series. In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the publication of the advertisement the Company will either re-publish the advertisement or the relevant part of the advertisement or make a reasonable refund or adjustment to the cost of the advertisement. If the error does not materially detract from the advertisement then no re-publication, refund or adjustment will be made. It is the advertiser's responsibility to check the content of advertisements and the Company will not accept any liability for loss or damage, or obligation to re-publish or make a refund or adjustment, arising from the publication of an advertisement containing an error, misprint or omission which has not been identified by the advertiser after first publication.

6. Box numbers The Company accepts no liability for loss or damage caused by delay in forwarding or omission to forward to the advertiser replies to Box Numbers. Box Numbers must not be used for sending goods, distributing circulars or communications from agents. The Company reserves the right to open and inspect all replies to Box Number and to destroy goods, circulars or communications from agents which are discovered during an inspection.

7. Inspection The Company shall be entitled at any time to inspect any goods or services advertised and may decline to carry further advertising if such inspection is not permitted or if in the Company's opinion the provision of further advertising facilities is not appropriate in view of the nature or quality of the goods or services.

8. Indemnity The advertiser, including any advertising agency involved in placing any advertisement, warrants that it has permission to use for publication by electronic and printed means all material which is included in the advertisement. The advertiser and any advertising agency placing any advertisement shall agree to indemnify the Company in respect of all charges, costs, claims or damage arising out of the publication of the advertisement, whether the same result from actual or threatened legal action or from some other cause.

9. Cancellation On a request for cancellation or amendment of a classified advertisement being accepted, you will be given a cancellation or amendment number which must be quoted in all subsequent correspondence. Payment of the originally agreed price will be required in full for any advertisement in relation to which the advertiser is unable to supply a valid cancellation or amendment number. Cancellation can only be accepted if the Company is notified of the cancellation by no later than the following deadlines:-
Lineage, Semi Display - By no later than 6.30pm on the working day prior to publication. Advertisements to appear on Monday must be cancelled by 10 am on the preceding Saturday
Classified Display - By no later than 24 hours before the date of publication
Colour/Features - By no later than 10 clear days before the date of publication
To Cancel Lineage, Semi Display and Classified Display advertisements please telephone 01902 317878. To cancel Colour/Features advertisements please speak to the Representative through whom the advertisement was booked.

10. Rates Advertising rates are as laid out in the Company's current rate card which is available on request from the Company's offices. The rates may be varied from time to time in the Company's absolute discretion and without prior notice. The advertiser's liability for the advertisement will be charged for any advertising ordered after the date of variation.

All gross advertising rates except classified lineage and semi-display are subject to a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance levy payable by advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

11. Payment The Company reserves the right to require pre-payment as a condition of any advertisement being published. Where pre-payment is not required unless different credit terms have been agreed with the advertiser in writing payment must be made within 14 days of the date of issue of the Company's invoice. An additional £2.00 booking charge will be payable if the invoice is not paid in full within this 14 day period.

Any additional credit facilities which are offered are at the Company's absolute discretion. The advertiser's liability shall be for the full amount of all advertising ordered and shall not be limited to the amount of any credit limit which the Company may impose.

Payment may be made by [method] cash, cheque or credit/debit card. The advertiser's obligation to pay for other items on an account shall not be affected by the existence of any query over an individual item within that account.

12. Data Protection Act The advertiser's details will be retained by the Company for the purposes of administering our accounts records and so that the Company may notify the advertiser of future advertising opportunities which may be of interest to you. By placing advertising with the Company the advertiser agrees to your details being used for this purpose.

13. Applicable Law These conditions of acceptance shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

Win then tired firsts hang on for a draw

Cannock Ladies 1st 2
Bowden 0
Cannock Ladies 1st 1
Chester 1

FIRST week back for the ladies firsts saw them blow away the Christmas cobwebs with a win and a draw.

Against Bowden Cannock played well as Holly Turbill and Sarah Martin bagged goals. A second game against Chester saw a draw as the tired team fought to hold on.

Cannock Ladies 2nds 3
Shrewsbury Ladies 1sts 1
Saturday saw Cannock ladies Seconds travel to Shrewsbury in a friendly.

Captain and player of the match Laura Thomas found the bottom corner following a well-rehearsed short corner. Then a second goal came from Louise Morley-Humphrey.

Cannock continued to press after conceding and answered with a third goal from Sophie Tibbetts.

If you're interested in joining the hockey club, visit www.cannockhockey.org. Training is Monday from 6.30-7.30pm at Chase Park.

Baggies are keeping eye on Gardner

ALBION are again keeping tabs on Sunderland midfielder Craig Gardner while interest in unsettled striker Shane Long looks set to increase this month.

The Baggies' new head coach will walk into the middle of a the January transfer window with the futures of several current Hawthorns players uncertain.

But he might also be asked to make a decision on Gardner, who sources in the north east claim could leave the Stadium of Light for a reduced fee.

The former Villa and Birmingham midfielder is a long-standing target for the Baggies.

They have continued to monitor the Birmingham-born player's progress and could make a move to sign him on a free transfer when his Black Cats contract expires in the summer. But it is believed the Wearside club might be tempted to cash in this month to recoup some of the money they paid on him.

Lambert's words come back to haunt him

Villa 1 Sheffield utd 2

PAUL LAMBERT'S comments came back to haunt him following another cup humiliation to a side from Yorkshire.

Before the game the manager had claimed Villa could do without the FA Cup, like it was an unwanted distraction to their Premier League plan.

And Sheffield United duly obliged him, doing what their county counterparts Bradford did in the League Cup just 12 months ago and shocked their hosts.

Afterwards Lambert denied belittling the Cup, insisting his words were taken out of context, but he made it clear it was low on the priority list. It is something many will think and fewer will utter but the manager still misjudged the mood with Villa desperate for a crumb of comfort.

Football

There is genuine sympathy with the Scot as he must juggle Premier League survival with expectation which is beyond his side at present.

There was nowhere to hide, especially after fielding a strong team even without the injured Nathan Baker, Ron Vlaar and Gabby Agbonlahor.

His team selection made a rod for his own back. It was win or bust against the League One Blades. There is not a huge difference between Villa's strongest team and their weakest team such is the lack of depth to the squad, meaning Lambert has little wriggle room.

But, after another inept home performance, uncomfortable questions continue to crop up about the team's direction.

Too many of the summer signings look out of their depth, especially worrying against a side 18th in League One.

Libor Kozak's broken leg is desperately unlucky, as is Jores Okore's cruciate knee ligament injury but Aleksandar Toney and Antonio Luna look short of the quality to take Villa forward.

Against the run of play, Villa levelled with 15 minutes left when Nicklas Helenius drilled in his first goal for the club after a spot of penalty box pinball.

But parity lasted only six minutes, when Flynn wriggled free 18 yards out and curled in a fine winner. Backed into a corner, Lambert and Villa must find their way out.

Scholars make grade with hat-trick of wins

Chasetown 3 Eastwood Town1
WHISPER it quietly but Chasetown started 2014 with their third consecutive victory over the Christmas and New Year.

Fans can't help but think back to the run at the start of 2013 which saw Chasetown win 15 out of their final 22 league games and sneak into the play-offs. After this victory, the Scholars are 11 points shy of the side occupying the final play-off spot but more importantly these three points pushed them 12 points clear of the bottom three, a prospect that was looking nervously possible after a few defeats in November.

Eastwood Town are a club in disarray, 10 points adrift at the bottom of the league.

Chasetown rewarded those efforts with a dynamic start from Tesfa Robinson having a fierce volley blocked from a corner after just two minutes.

Visiting keeper Wayne Smith scrambled to his left to keep out a goalbound Lee Butler free kick and then Simon Brown had his effort headed off the line by Shaun Archbold.

Harris' men finally got the breakthrough goal in the 12th minute. It was another corner that found its way to Robinson who lashed a fierce shot into the net.

Five minutes later, Brown made it 2-0 from close range after being set up by Butler - Brown's sixth goal in the last eight games - and in the 18th minute it was a landslide 3-0 when Paul Sullivan broke from the halfway line and unselfishly set up Ramone Stephens.

Football

The brakes were put on Chasetown's rampant start just after the half hour when Butler received his marching orders for a challenge on Rice Bertram just outside the Eastwood penalty area.

The 10 men regrouped until the half-time interval and then gradually began to dominate the second half again with Smith straight into the action to deny Joe Halsall at his near post.

The visitors got one back when a cross from the right was deflected by Chris Slater against his own post and under pressure from Anthony Gregory who then had the simplest of tap-ins to fire home the rebound.

The Scholars' Simon Brown puts another goal away to make it 2-0 to Chasetown on their home patch

Speedway's Thorsell is to meet fans

SPEEDWAY fans can get a chance to meet Wolverhampton racer Jacob Thorsell who is jetting into the UK this weekend.

Thorsell, who is back at Monmore in 2014 after recovering from a broken arm, is the special guest of main team sponsors Parrys International at their open day on Sunday.

The event, which always pulls in plenty of speedway fans, will be at their Cheslyn Hay base from 10am where Thorsell will pose for photographs and sign autographs.

Wolverhampton promoter Chris Van Straaten said: "Jacob is very much looking forward to coming over from Sweden and meeting supporters."

"He will be there between 10am-2.30pm."

Hayes end 2013 on a downer as Star win

Heath Hayes 0 Continental Star 2
HEATH Hayes ended a very disappointing 2013 with probably their worst performance of the year.

Albeit they were without six first choice players they still should have performed better against a side second from bottom of the table.

Both sides struggled to find any cohesion on a very heavy pitch and the first half ended goalless.

However, little was going right for the home side and any threat was snuffed out by the Star central defenders Josh O'Gared and Richard Gerald and keeper Dolman was never seriously troubled.

As the game wore on Star came more into it and scored on 78 minutes with a fine finish from Ricardo Reid.

Wolves still struggling to get goals

Gillingham 1 Wolves 0
VICTORY would have put Wolves top of League One, but you would hardly have known it as their struggle for goals went on.

How Jackett must wish he could nail down the strike-force he wants – it clearly doesn't appear to exist among the present squad.

One win in their last seven games and three victories and six draws in 12, during which time they have scored just 13 goals, tells its own story – one to which Jackett is desperate to provide a happy ending.

At windswept, wintry Gillingham he tried yet another combination up front as he paired Bakary Sako with Kevin Doyle after dropping top scorer Leigh Griffiths and a fatigued Jake Cassidy.

Scholars grab back-to-back league wins

Chasetown 4 Sheffield FC 3
CHASSETOWN won back-to-back league games for the first time this season in an incredible end-to-end game of football to close 2013 in style.

No one could argue Chasetown were not worthy winners but the nature of the game saw attack dominate defence throughout and if this had finished 7-6 there would have been few complaints!

Chasetown were looking to build on their Boxing Day victory and they did so through leading goalscorer Paul Sullivan who took aim from outside the box and pinged an absolute beauty of an effort beyond Rob Poulter leaving the visiting keeper no chance.

His trickery wrong-footed two Sheffield defenders before his shot was blocked.

Football

Connor Shirley cleared the ball. If Scholars fans were concerned about the failure to take chances, that was redeemed four minutes into the restart as they opened up a two-goal advantage.

In the 48th minute, Brown advanced towards the edge of the area and, in truth, it looked like his pass was too short to reach Wellescombe but, Sheffield defender Brandon Cardwell failed to clear what looked like a routine move and the ball got through to Wellescombe, who from six yards,

Sixty seconds later, Sullivan capitalised on a poor clearance from Jamie Hadfield and drove home from close range.

Just after the hour, Sullivan completed his hat-trick – his second for the club, his last one coming in February versus Loughborough Dynamo.

Wellescombe and Brown combined for Sullivan to be goal side of the last defender and finished smartly beyond the Sheffield keeper who had no chance.

With 18 minutes remaining, it was Chasetown who failed to clear the ball in their six yard box and former Scholar Purkiss netted.

Hat-trick hero Sullivan was withdrawn, while Manager Craig Harris also introduced defender Richard Teesdale for Brown, who had picked up a slight knock.

Sheffield further reduced the deficit with 10 minutes left. If Sullivan's first goal was a beauty, then Andy Gascoigne's strike was certainly a candidate to equal the Chase opener. The striker picked up the ball outside the area and fired into the far corner of the goal.

History repeats itself in New Year for Pitmen

AFC Telford United 5 Hednesford Town 3
FOR the second season in succession Hednesford Town scored three goals on the opening day of a New Year only to end with no points to show for their efforts.

After suffering defeat against Rushall Olympic in 2013 it would be AFC Telford United who would prove to be the victors at the start of 2014 in a game that edged one way then another. In a ding dong top of the table Skriff North clash it was actually the visitors who started the better with Hednesford opening the scoring within 10 minutes.

Following some good interplay between Dave Macpherson and Nathan Blissett, the big frontman was able to calmly slot home for his second goal in as many games.

The lead would only last four minutes though as once again Town's defensive frailties were shown up when Matty McGinn's corner was headed home at the near post by Adam Farrell into the far corner of the net.

On a tricky playing surface following some awful weather in the previous 24 hours it would be The Pitmen who would strike next. Elliott Durrell's superb freekick was powerfully headed home by Francino Francis to give his side the lead once again.

Back came the home side though and with a little help from some generous officiating they forced freekicks and corners to test the Hednesford defence. From one of these the home side almost grabbed an equaliser only for Durrell to clear off the line. Telford would find their leveller just five minutes into the second period though as a long throw into the Hednesford box wasn't dealt with and Charlie Bennett tapped home.

Three minutes later the home side were in front as the Town defence were cut open and Farrell was able to capitalise and slot home under Dan Crane for his second of the game.

In a crazy first 10 minutes of the second half Telford were able to edge further ahead as another cross caused confusion in the Town box and Mike Phenix lashed home at the back post.

The visitors weren't quite done in the game yet though and with 13 minutes remaining they gave themselves a glimmer of hope as substitute Neil Harvey saw his header deflected into the net via a Telford defender.

However, any hope was extinguished as Farrell ensured he would take the matchball home.

Francino Francis puts Hednesford 2-1 ahead against AFC Telford but it was to prove not enough for the Pitmen

Aldridge come out on top of friendly

Aldridge 19
Burntwood 2nds 10
THIS friendly fixture versus Burntwood produced a highly competitive and surprisingly free-flowing contest considering the soft pitch and gathering gloom. Both packs slugged it out throughout trying to gain the upper hand but the contest up front remained equal such that, by the end, neither try line had been threatened by forward pressure.

Because of this impasse both sides widened their game. The Aldridge midfield had more of a cutting edge which created problems for the visitors such that the home side were two scores ahead by the interval.

Fullback Alex Yates came steaming into the line and out-sprinted the cover defence to touch down midway out and 10 minutes later, a chip over the top and a fortuitous bounce gave No.10 Adam Reed a clear run to the line through a flatfooted defence. Yates converted both.

A Tom O'Brien penalty just after the restart gave the visitors cause for some optimism. Then Aldridge No.8 Chris Balmforth crossed the try line. A late flourish by the visitors produced a try from winger Ben Tranter which was converted by No.10 Tom O'Brien.

Ladies tee up success

GOLFING ladies teed off 2014 with a double taste of success.

Women members from Beau Desert Golf Club lifted the two main county club knockout competitions, winning the Inter-Club Matchplay finals.

Captained by Hazel Belcher, they won the Perry Cup, the Silver Trophy for handicaps 12-14 and the County Shield, for bronze division handicaps of 25-36. They were successful in winning the Silver and Bronze trophies.

Captain Belcher said: "What a fantastic achievement. We don't think these trophies have ever been won by the same club in the same year before."

The ladies were presented with the trophies by ladies county golf president Ann Andrews.

Hennessey apologises for refusal to play

Football

WAYNE HENNESSEY has apologised for refusing to play at Gillingham as Crystal Palace and West Ham emerged as front-runners to sign the £2m-rated goalkeeper.

Boss Kenny Jackett revealed the Wales No.1 had said sorry on Monday morning after asking not to play against the Gills, and Hennessey will now be available to face Preston on Saturday.

Meanwhile, sources in south London claimed the Eagles have had an opening offer rejected, although Jackett claimed there had been no formal bids.

Palace and the Hammers' interest is expected to be the opening shot of what could become a protracted chase. Hennessey's future became a public issue after head coach Jackett claimed the keeper didn't want to play in the Gillingham match on Friday which Wolves lost 1-0.

But Jackett said: "Wayne has apologised this morning.

"He feels he was in the wrong and he made the wrong decision.

"With hindsight, he feels he shouldn't have said what he said. He has apologised.

"Wayne will carry on as a Wolves player until something happens. There will be some internal discipline, definitely, and when that is dealt with we will move on and put this down to an error of judgement."

Aaron McCarey made his League debut for Wolves with first-choice Carl Ikeme out for up to six weeks with a broken hand.

Hennessey, who has 18 months left on a lucrative five-year deal he signed in June 2010, has let it be known he wants to leave Molineux.

That has alerted Palace, where boss Tony Pulis is an admirer, while his agent has close links with West Ham and manager Sam Allardyce.

Jackett said: "We've not heard from any club or had any bids." Pulis said: "There are lots of reports saying he is going to West Ham and going here and going there.

I think we will be linked with almost everybody over the next couple of weeks... especially on Sky Sports News."

Meanwhile, Wolves have been linked with a move for Bournemouth striker Wes Thomas.

The 26-year-old has snubbed a permanent move at Yeovil because Glovers boss Gary Johnson claims the former Birmingham City loanee has his heart set on joining "a big club".

Delight at Lalkovic loan stay

DEAN SMITH is delighted after Walsall confirmed Milan Lalkovic's loan has been extended until the end of the season.

The 21-year-old was due to return to Chelsea on Saturday after scoring four goals in the first half of the campaign for the Saddlers.

But after successful negotiations with the Premier League club, Smith was able to strike a deal which will keep Lalkovic at the Banks's until the summer.

Smith believes the Slovakian under-21 international has shown a steady improvement during his time with the club and expects him to get even better in the months ahead.

"I am delighted that Chelsea have allowed Milan to continue his development with us," said Smith. "I look forward to continuing to work with him."

Lalkovic made a flying start to his Saddlers career when he netted in the 3-1 opening day win over Tranmere.

"I have said many times that I wanted to stay here," said Lalkovic.

"Being here has really benefitted me and I feel that I can keep improving under the Gaffer and (assistant boss) Richard O'Kelly."

Butler's warning on Rovers clash

WALSALL skipper Andy Butler has warned his teammates not to take Tranmere lightly on Saturday.

Ronnie Moore's side sit outside the League One drop zone on goal difference alone and were brushed aside 3-1 at the Banks's on the opening day of the season.

"Tranmere have had some good results, particularly at home and you can't write them off," he said.

WILSON'S HEADER SINKS THE PITMEN

Hednesford Town 0 North Ferriby United 1
NORTH Ferriby United striker Anthony Wilson was the difference at a bitterly cold Keys Park.

The Villagers moved to top spot in The Skril North and their hosts, Hednesford Town, kept their place in the play-offs but will be worried by the dip in their form and the lack of threat they posed in attack.

An even start to the match saw the defence of both teams marshall the opposing threats of Wilson and Nathan Jarman for North Ferriby and Neil Harvey and Nathan Blissett for Hednesford with only Jamie Yates for the away side offering any width and pace in attack.

Wilson flicked wide from a Yates' cross on 11 minutes before Darren Campion shot weakly at Adam Nicklin for the home side eight minutes later.

Threatened

Hednesford top scorer Elliott Durrell threatened to light up the contest on 33 minutes when he skipped past the challenges of three North Ferriby defenders only for Blissett to snatch at the loose ball and scuff his shot straight at the keeper.

With only two minutes to go before the interval the decisive goal came when Wilson battled with Paul McCone and won the initial flick on. Clarke stole a yard on the hitherto impressive Campion and hung up a perfect cross for Wilson to nod past Dan Crane.

In a second half which was played out in similar fashion to the first, North Ferriby

Pitmen manager Rob Smith, whose team were flying high only three weeks ago and now look likely to fall away from the title race, was clearly disappointed at the result and admitted that things simply didn't go his way during the 90 minutes.

"There was not a great deal between the two teams, just one minute where the winger got a yard of space to put in a good cross.

"Both defences were on top but we just didn't offer enough of a threat up front.

"A couple of months ago when we were flying we'd have got a draw today but that's the way it goes in this league when you're struggling and we must carry on."

The Pitmen meanwhile have two midweek training sessions to prepare for the visit of Boston United this Saturday, kick off 3pm.

Hednesford Town: Crane, Disney, Campion (c), McCone, Francis, Taylor, Thompson-Brown, Durrell, Harvey (Woolfe 54), Blissett, Thorley (Lennon 80). Subs not used: Melbourne, MacPherson, Bailey.
